ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As I wind up my work, I first thank God Almighty for his guiding hands which lighted my path in every step of my way, through this great journey of mine.

I place on record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. S. Balasubramanian, Professor, Department of Environmental Sciences and Director, Centre for Life Sciences, Bharathiar University campus for accepting me as his student and for guiding me and encouraging me to complete the work on time.

I owe my sincere thanks to Dr. C. Namasivayam, Professor and Head, Department of Environmental Sciences, and all the faculty members, Department of Environmental Sciences, for the support and help provided to me.

At this juncture I thank all who helped me in acquiring the data for my study. My special thanks to the Statistical Officer, Taluk Office, Kotagiri for providing me with the village information. I owe my thanks to the Assistant Manager, Agriculture Department, Kotagiri for providing me with the land use details and spending time in discussion with me. I thank the Department of Soil Conservation, Ooty for rendering their timely help. I acknowledge the efforts of all the office staff of the various tea estates for providing me with the climatological data for all the required years though it was a very tedious work for them.

I’ll never forget the help of Mr. Murugan who accompanied me during the ground truth surveys. I am grateful to the NGO organization in Kotagiri for their help in the surveys which had to be made in the forest areas. I thank all the tribals who willingly gave information on their respective villages. I would like to thank the BRC Centre, Kotagiri for kindly lending their GPS for my field studies.

I am deeply indebted to all my lab mates Dr. S. Suriyanarayanan, Mr. D. Jayakumar, Miss M. Prashanthi Devi, Miss P. Malini and Miss K. K. Manjula Devi, Mrs. Harathi, P. B. Dhanaraj, Dr. A. S. Mailappa, Mr. G. Saravana Kumar,
Mr. Vivekanandan and Mr. Krishna Kumar for their support and help throughout the study whose efforts will ever be remembered.

I thank all the research scholars and the office staff of the Department of Environmental Sciences for their encouraging words when I was down which enabled me to carry on. A big thank you for Dr. P. Senthil Kumar, CSIR Research Fellow in helping me align my thesis.

Words can never convey my gratitude to Mr. R. Gowthaman, Mr. K. Karthikeyan, Mr. K. Nanthakumar and Mr. S. Sheik Ismail for their efforts, help, support and encouragements throughout the study which kept me cheerful all the time. I also thank them for accompanying me in the water sample collections and in surveying the habitats.

I thank all my teachers both at school and at college for all the inputs they have given me which helped me scale great heights. A special note of thanks to my M.Sc guide Dr. M. Ramesh who encouraged me to pursue my studies.

At this stage, with a heart full of emotions, I thank my parents and all family members for their love, care, words of encouragement and their valuable prayers without which I wouldn’t have been able to reach these heights.

A big bouquet of thanks to my loving husband for his patient waiting for four long years to be united with me and for his prayerful support at different junctures.

I also thank Sowmiya Communications, TNAU Campus, CBE-3 for the neat printing of the entire work.

I thank all those who have worked behind screens for the successful completion of this thesis.

HANNAH SAMPATH