ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The work on this dissertation has been long but exciting which would not have been possible without the help and encouragement of my research supervisor, family, friends, colleagues, professional acquaintances and students. I would like to thank all those who have contributed in one way or another to the completion of the work, but in particular I would like to thank the following people for their special contributions.

I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my research supervisor Dr. R. Saravana Selvan, Associate Professor and Head i/c, Department of English and Foreign Languages, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore for his constant support and intellectual stimulation. He has been more than a guide, a friend and philosopher whose words of encouragement made this work look very simple and easy. My association with my supervisor would be everlasting.

I would like to thank my fellow research scholars, Mr. V. Radhakrishnan, Mrs. S. Jayalakshmi and other scholars in the department for their unflagging moral support.

I am thankful to my wife Dr. A. Devaki, Associate Professor in Education, Govt. College of Education, Komarapalayam and my son Mr. M. Vijaykeerti for their patience and support and other invaluable behind-the-scenes assistance.
I am indebted to the Director, IRT, Taramani and the Principal, IRTT, Erode for having permitted me to pursue my Ph.D programme. My thanks are also due to my friends and colleagues for their support and for cheerfully putting up with me even in times of stress.

I am grateful to Professor Arappan for conscientiously and expertly examining various drafts of my manuscript and giving me numerous helpful suggestions.

I thank the almighty for guiding me through this work by his omnipresence and benign blessings.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the contribution of many students in my class at the IRTT, Erode. They have been patient and helpful experimental subjects and sources of examples, suggestions and new ideas.
