Acknowledgement

It is rightly said that “Every effort is motivated by ambitions and all ambitions have an inspiration behind” I owe this pride place to my parents. Their selfless persuasion, sacrifice, heartfelt blessing has made this manuscript a success to translate their dreams into reality.

First and foremost, I gratefully record my indebtedness to Dr. K. Bassi, Professor and Head, Department of Agronomy, the chairman of my advisory committee who took upon the task of guiding me. In fact words fail to pay my deep debt of gratitude to him for his judicious guidance, unflinching support, assistance, valuable suggestions and sustained encouragement throughout the course of this investigation.

I am equally grateful to the esteemed members of my advisory committee Dr. D. Badiyala, Sr. Scientist, Department of Agronomy, Dr. O.C. Kapur, Sr. Scientist, Department of Soil Science and Dr. K.P. Singh, Professor, Department of Plant Physiology and Dr. T.S. Verma, Professor and Head, Department of Soil Science for their guidance, cooperation and timely suggestion.

My special thanks are due to Dr. Ajay Gupta, Department of Agronomy for his noteworthy suggestions in preparation of this manuscript. It is my privilege to express my revered sense of gratitude to Dr. B.R. Sood, Dr. Manoj Bhargava, Dr. H. L. sharma, Dr. J.P. Saini, Dr. V.K. Sharma, Dr. Suresh Gautam, Dr. M.C. Rana and Dr. Naveen for their guidance and encouragement at every step.

My warmest thanks are due to my friends Rohit Sharma, Vishal, Renu, Sandeep and Rohit Soni in the Department of Agronomy and my colleagues Dr. A.K. Kaushal, Dr. Ashok Verma, Dr. Sameer and Dr. Mahinder, Agr. Dev. Officers at Directorate of Agriculture for their cooperation and kind help during my study period.

I am thankful to the members of faculty, field, laboratory and ministerial staff of the Department of Agronomy and Library staff for their cordial cooperation and encouragement during this period.

My sincere thanks are due to Dean, Post Graduate Studies, CSK HPKV Palampur for providing necessary facilities.

Words in lexicon would be few exogenous to express deep sense gratitude towards my sisters Sunita, Suman Monika and Ritu. I would like to add that love, affection and moral support of my wife Monika Dhiman and daughter Riya during the course of investigation can be felt and can’t be expressed in words.

I am thankful to Coordinator, Placement Cell, CSK HPKV Palampur who has allowed me to use the computer for the typing of this manuscript. I am also highly thankful to Mr. Santosh Kapoor and Sandeep Singh for computer printing of this manuscript.

Finally, I am grateful to the Secretary, Agriculture and Dr. J.C. Rana, Director of Agriculture for sanctioning me leave to complete this task.

I owe entire responsibility for all the errors and omissions.
