

4. Astone. et al. (1991). Analysis of specific family involvement practice such as parental monitoring, parent-child discussions, parent participation at the school PTA membership are linked to student attendance.

19. Finn. (1989). Research on the analysis of student’s dropout of school in the primary and middle grade.

22. Heyneman. S. (1997). A few studies assessing the difficulty of the Arabic reading process in or outside the Arab region and studies on repetition and dropout rates.

25. Jangira. (1994). DPEP Baseline Learners’ Studies - the results of Baseline assessment studies of the DPEP - student’s performance in reading and arithmetic.

27. Kingdon. (1998). A study on home background and school influence for the achievement of students in India.

29. Lamdin.(1998). A review and research on students with better attendance score higher on achievement tests than their more frequently absent peers.

30. Lavy. (2005). Attitude of students in selecting the school in or outside the district- New choice of programme for students in Tel Aviv.

31. Lavy and Hitomi. (2007). Link between school quality and grade completion for primary school age children in Egypt.

32. Lee. (1994). Studies and investigation of family practice and parental involvement activities are associated with students' attendance.

33. Lehr.et al. (2004). A review on the history of dropout due to performance of the school and school related factors.

35. Middle School Research. (1993). Middle School Students at risk: What do we do with the most vulnerable children in American Education? Middle School Journal 24/5.

39. Nachman. (Ohio study 1991). The dropout in the analysis of reading, test information, medium for their grade level.

42. National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration. (1998). Assess and Retention under DPEP, New Delhi: NIPEA report.

43. NCERT. 1979). Third All India Educational Survey- School Education, New Delhi. NCERT.

44. NCERT. (1961-62). The Indian Year Book of Education, State Programmes, Part II, New Delhi: NCERT.

45. OERI. Office of Educational Research and Improvement. (1987). A study on the school improvement research series- North

47. Rawat D.S. (NCERT 1977). Research on Non-formal education on dropout and stagnation of children in the primary schools in India under rural development.

50. Sandene. B.A. (1994). Selected personality variables as predictors of attrition in instrumental music. Presented at the Music Educators National Conference convention, Cincinnati,

51. Sarva Shiksha Abiyan. (2000). MHRD New Delhi: Government of India

52. Sharma. R. C. and Spar C. L. (1965). The causes of dropout and stagnation into variable heads, Causes relating to school variables, pupils variables and family variables. Analysis sponsored by NIE, Delhi in 1966 -The total dropout under different factors like internal and external.

53. Shukla. (1994). Studies on the Causes of the Attainment of Students' Achievement- study on about 66,000 students to find out the level of attainment of primary school children in 25 states/Union Territories.
54. Solly. B.J. (1986). A study of attrition from the instrumental music programme in moving between grade levels in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. Dissertation Abstracts International, 47, 2877A

55. Survey of Local Programs. (July 1987). School Dropouts: Report to Congressional Requesters Washington, DC: General Accounting Office,

56. Lankier – Soar. (1965). Analysis on reasons of Dropout and Stagnation- Five major dimensions like social and economical problems.

60. Miller and Imel. (1987). Report on High motivation to the children makes improvement in school attendance and quality of vocational Education.

61. Oreopoulos. (2005). A report and an analysis of explanation of dropout with the standard human capital model- Improve health and increased satisfaction.

