Acknowledgements

It gives me great pleasure in expressing my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. P. A. Azeez for his inspiring guidance, constant encouragement, constructive suggestions, invariable support and cooperation rendered throughout the course of the study.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. V. S. Vijayan, Director, SACON, for his encouragement and providing facilities during the course of investigation.

Initial phase of the study was funded by Ministry of the Environment (Project titled Impact of human interference on bird and plant communities in NBR). I would like to thank project investigators, Dr. Lalitha Vijayan, Dr. S. N. Prasad and Dr. P. Balasubramanian for their encouragement and valuable guidance.

I am grateful to Dr. Ajithkumar for his encouragement, valuable suggestions, criticism and comments on earlier draft. Thanks are also due to Dr. H. S. Das, Dr. Ravisankaran, Dr. S. Bhupathy, Dr. R. Sivakumar, Dr. N. Sivaganesan and Dr. S. Muralidharan for their help and cooperation.

Cooperation from Librarians Dr E. Jhonson, Sampath Kumar and research scholars from SACON namely R. Mohanraj, A. Rajasekhar, K. Banugopan, B. Maheshwaran, Dr. G. Umapathy, Dr. V. Gokula, A. Prabhakara, and Sr. Nirmala is greatly appreciated. I specially thank to Mr. K. K. Ramakrishnan for writing a number of computer programs for the data analysis.

I would like to thank Dr. Udayan, Head of the Botany Dept., Bharathiar University, Dr. P. Venu, Botanical Survey of India and Dr. S. S. R. Bennett, Institute of Forest Genetics and Tree Breeding, Coimbatore, for their valuable comments on the earlier draft.

I owe my gratitude to Prof. P. S. Ramakrishnan, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi, Dr. P. Daniel Director, Botanical Survey of India, Dr. V. Gopal, Head of the Environmental Sciences Dept., Bharathiar University, Dr. Karivaradraju, Director of research, Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Dr. O. S. Kandasamy, Head of the Agronomy Dept., TNAU, Mr. S. Subramaniam, Director of Institute of Forest Genetics and Tree Breeding and Dr. Malathi, BSI Coimbatore for their kind cooperation and advice.
I would like to thank Dr. Akbarkhan, former Director and Mr. Altaf from soil testing laboratory, TNAU and General manager (R &D), Bimetal Bearings Ltd., Coimbatore for providing laboratory facilities for soil analysis.

I am very grateful to Dr. D. Stephen, American College, Madurai for plant identification and cooperation during fieldwork. I wish to thank Dr. N. K. Ramachandran, Dr. M. S. Binoj Kumar, K. Sivakumar, WII and Ms. Sasikala, BSI for their help and cooperation. I would also like to thank my friends, Altaf Nadaf, Inas Cutinho and Nitin Desai, Shivaji University Kolhapur, who encouraged me to join the Ph.D. course.

I record my sincere thanks to my field assistants Manoharan, Kunmari and especially to Karadi Madan, who took motherly care of us during our stay at field station. I am also thankful to my friends from Tamil Nadu water supply and drainage board, Siruvani for their cooperation and hospitality during my field visits to Siruvani.

I am thankful to Mrs. Mabroora and Baby Ayesha for their generosity and patience. Dr. Ravisankaran and Mrs. Deepa are greatly appreciated for providing me computer facility and their hospitality.

My heartfelt thanks are due to my brother-in-law, Mr. Swaran P. R., Kerala Forest Research Institute, for his enthusiastic help, during the fieldwork. My brother Mr. Prashant Mahajan, Bombay Natural History Society, is highly appreciated for his kind cooperation and support.

I have no words to express my gratitude to my parents. I am extremely grateful to them for their encouragement, cooperation and all kind of support throughout my life.

Without enthusiasm, encouragement and considerate cooperation of my husband Arun P. R., this work would not have been materialized. I am proud of my baby, Ruchi, who sacrificed her mother’s company at several occasions. Her cheerful face keeps me stress-free and energetic. I am highly grateful to both of them for their cooperation and patience.

I extend my thanks to my in-laws, relatives and friends for their kind cooperation and good wishes.
