ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Every research work evolves into an inevitable finding only through the unstinting efforts of the people who have dedicated themselves and toiled to mould the researcher and hence the research work in unprecedented ways. This acknowledgement is a small tribute to their meticulous and magnanimous help rendered in every walk of this research work.

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude of the highest altitude and magnitude to my research supervisor Dr. S. Kuppuswami, Director, SEI&RR, Pondicherry University for providing me an opportunity to work under him. I exalt the unwavering confidence he had on me, his profound diligence and passion in this work which helped to gain the momentum to strike the anvil. I acknowledge his relentless efforts in making this work a successful one.

I thank my Doctoral Committee Members Dr. H.P. Patil, Dean, Ramanujan School of Mathematics and Computer Science, Pondicherry University, and Dr. R. Subramanian, Professor, Department of Computer Science, Pondicherry University for their constructive reviews and encouragement throughout this work.

I behold high regards to Dr. G. Aghila, Professor and Head, Department of Computer Science, Pondicherry University who had been persuasively encouraging me and took inordinate interest in my work to help me emerge successfully.

I wish to attribute my earnest gratefulness to Dr. K. Chandrasekhar Rao, Professor and Head, Department of Banking Technology, Pondicherry University for having unleashed great support in many ways during the course of this research work.

I would like to place on record the timely help rendered by Dr. K. Vivekanandan, Professor and Head, Department of Computer Science & Engineering, Pondicherry Engineering College, Pondicherry. He catalyzed the progress of many pending tasks of my research work through his help.

I am thankful to all the faculty and staff of the Department of Computer Science, Department of Banking Technology and other neighboring institutes for their help and enquiries regarding the progress of my work which propelled me to work with more enthusiasm.

My special thanks are due to Mr. Marie Stanislas Ashok, Systems Manager, and the other staffs of the Computer Centre, Pondicherry University for their contribution in my work.

I express my gratefulness to my colleague Mr. V. Prasanna Venkatesan, Reader, Department of Banking Technology, Pondicherry University, who had nurtured this work in all possible ways to ensure its fruitful outcome. He had always been there to render any help needed and guide me through the darkness of ignorance.

Supportive and encouraging friends are an asset in times of difficulty and trial to uphold the perseverance to provide that extra thrust for success. I am fortunate to have as my asset Mrs. R. Geetha Ramani, Assistant Professor, Department of Information Technology, Pondicherry Engineering College, Pondicherry, and Mrs. S. Sivathya, Lecturer (Senior Scale), Department of Computer Science, Pondicherry University. Without their help, this work would not have been possible.

I thank all my Project Students of the Department of Computer Science, Pondicherry University, who have contributed in many ways to this research work and Ms. Pavithra Maurillius, M.B.A student of the Department of Banking Technology, Pondicherry University for helping in the editing works of this thesis.

I am deeply indebted to my compassionate family members especially, my father Mr. S.S. Thanasekaran, my mother Mrs. T. Malliga, my husband Mr. S.S.A. Balamurugan, and my children B. Kaarthik Ananth and B. Prithvi Raajanand, who have been very accommodating to cope up with all defaulting in my duties to them in my rush for this research work. Their encouragement and persistence helped me to see the completion of this work. I attribute all my success to them.

Above all, I thank the Almighty for blessing me with the opportunity of carrying out this research work with the affluent contributions of all the people mentioned above and also others who have indirectly contributed to this work. But for his guidance and help, this work would not have seen the light of the day

T. Chithralekha
