ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my prime duty to express my sense of gratitude towards all those who had helped me directly or indirectly in completing my Ph.D. thesis, "Sex – role, ego strength and self concept: A comparative study of college students".

My father Syed Muzaffar Ali, is the source of inspiration in my life. Since childhood he encouraged me for higher education and high achievements. To a great extent present work is the result of my father’s inspiration. However, I shall not express my sense of gratitude towards him, instead, I shall prefer to be indebted to him.

My guide Dr. D. S. Janbandhu has helped me at all stages of my work through his vast experience and extensive knowledge about the subject. I am indeed very much thankful to him.

My wife Phiroja, son Daanish, and daughter Rubina deserve all praise for the support they had given to me. It was impossible to complete this thesis without their love and cooperation.

I am thankful to the students who participated as subjects in the study, and the respective principals who granted me permission to collect data from their reputed institutions.

(Syed Munawwar Ali)
