ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

One must acknowledge the genuine help and support received from others. I would, therefore like to extend my profound gratitude to the prominent personalities for their inspiring contributions and blessings for the successful completion of this endeavour.

First of all, I would like to record my deep sense of gratitude to my respected guide Dr. M. Arumugham, M.Com., Ph.D., DIM., Reader in Commerce, PSG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore. My sincere thanks are due to him for his expert advice in connection with this work. He lent his valuable time in every phase of this research work. He has been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement to me during the tenure of my research work. But for his able guidance the thesis in its full format would not have been a reality. It is really my good fortune to do this research work under his guidance and I fondly appreciate and cherish his professional competence, easy accessibility and friendly disposition.

I am very much thankful to the Management of PSG College of Arts and Science for granting permission and providing facilities to carry out this piece of research. I am immensely grateful to Dr. B. Sampathkumar, Principal and Secretary, PSG College of Arts and Science for his patronage, encouragement and support throughout this research work.

I wish to acknowledge Prof. K. Sundararaman, Head, Department of Commerce, PSG College of Arts and Science for his valuable suggestions at various stages of this work.

I acknowledge my special indebtedness to Sri. K. Kumaravel, former Presiding Officer, Consumer Dispute Redressal Agency - Coimbatore, Sri. R. Desikan, Founder Chairman of Federation of Consumer Organisations of Tamil Nadu for their earnest support and contributions.

I register my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. S.M. Chockalingam, Professor and Head, Department of Commerce, Annamalai University, Chidambaram, Dr. H. Peerumohamed, Professor, Department of Management Studies,
Anna University, Chennai, Dr. S. Nakkiran, Professor of Cooperation, TBML College, Poraiyar, Dr. (Mrs) K. Kamalaveni, Reader in Commerce Vellalar College, Erode, and Mrs. P. Radha, Senior Lecturer in English V.L.B.Janaki Ammal Polytechnic College for their encouragement and timely assistance to complete this work.

My special thanks are due to Sri. C. Krishnamoorthy, Librarian, PSG College of Arts and Science who spared no pains in placing at my disposal all the reference materials and books to enable me to proceed with my research work. I also wish to express my gratitude to the librarians of the universities of Mysore, Kerala, Madurai, Madras and Pondicherry for their assistance in collecting the literature needed for the study.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not extend my whole hearted thanks to the presidents, secretaries, office bearers, members of the voluntary consumer organisations functioning in Coimbatore District and the non-members for sparing their precious time to respond to the interview schedules sincerely.

I am very much thankful to the staff members of the consumer Dispute Redressal Agency-Coimbatore and the Federation of Consumer Organisations of Tamilnadu-Chennai for their fullest co-operation to conduct this study.

A note of gratitude is due to Prof. R. Radhakrishnan, Lecturer, (Selection Grade) Department of Statistics, PSG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore for his immense help in processing the data.

I am thankful to my colleagues and research scholars of the Department of Commerce for their encouragement and help during the period of this research work. I am also thankful to R. Ramesh and R. Suresh, Kovai Data Centre- Coimbatore who converted the manuscript of this report into computer printouts neatly.

Finally my special thanks are due to my family members who were extremely patient and supportive during the process of my research work.
