ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to Dr. K. Karunakaran, Professor and Head, Department of Linguistics, for giving me an opportunity to undertake my studies. I am thankful to him for his kind guidance and help throughout the course.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. C. Shunmugom, Reader in Linguistics, who has been my guide for the dissertation. He is like a pole star to the wandering bark, throughout my course. But for his amazing patience, valuable guidance and encouragement I would not have completed my research work. Words fail to express my gratefulness to him.

I am also thankful to Dr. C. Sivashanmugam, Dr. V. Thayalan, Dr. C. Sivakumar, Lecturers, Department of Linguistics, Bharathiar University, for their guidance and help throughout the course. My sincere thanks are also due to Dr. N. Balasubramanian, lecturer, Department of Education Technology, and Dr. V. Jeyas, Lecturer, Department of Tamil, Bharathiar University, for their valuable guidance.

I wish to express my gratefulness to research officers, Dr. N. Nataraja Pillai, Dr. Sam Mohanlal, Dr. B. D. Jeyaram,
Dr. K.S. Rajashree of Central Institute of Indian Languages, Mysore, for their constant valuable guidance and help in the course of my research endeavour.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not mention about Mr. V. Sasikumar and Dr. Paul Gunasekaran of Central Institute of English and Foreign Languages, Hyderabad, who are the architects of my thesis.

Ms. G. Bhanumathy, E.M.R.C. of Central Institute of English and Foreign Languages needs a special mention here for she was my caretaker whenever I visited Hyderabad.

The Headmasters and my friends in various schools in and around Coimbatore city need a special mention here, for they helped me in many ways to administer the questionnaire to the children of those schools.

My sincere thanks are also to Mr. G. Natarajan and Mr. B. Velliangiri who undertook the laborious task of typing the materials.
