ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My deepest appreciation and gratitude is dedicated to my supervisor, Dr. R. Sathyamoorthy, M. Sc., M. Phil, Ph. D., PGDCA, Reader, UGC research Awardee, Department of Physics, Kongunadu Arts and Science College who has inspired me to get a solid background to “II-VI semiconductors” and for guiding to do this thesis. His mentoring, erudite understanding and constant encouragement have enabled me to complete this work.

I am indebted to our Secretary and Director Dr. M. Aruchami, M. Sc., Ph. D, FRES (Lond), for extending the best support in all directions- Institutional and personal in making this work.

My sincere thanks to Dr. T. Kulandaivelu, M. Sc., Ph. D., FSESc, Principal, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore for providing necessary facilities and constant encouragement throughout the course of my study.

I am extremely thankful to Prof. K. Natarajan, M. Sc., M. Phil., Dip. Ed., Professor and Head of the Department of Physics, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore for providing laboratory facilities and encouragement throughout the course of my study.

I wish to convey my fruitful thanks to Dr. A. Subbarayan, M. Sc., M. Phil., Ph. D, Reader in Physics, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore for his support and encouragement.

It is hard to under estimate my sincere thanks to Dr. M. N. Ponusamy, Professor in Bio-Physics and Condensed Matter Physics, Madras University, Chennai, Dr. P. Kulandaivel, Professor in Physics, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, Dr. P. Ravindren, Professor of Chemistry, Oslo University, Norway, Mrs. J. Vidhya, Research Scholar, Department of Chemistry, Oslo Scholar, Department of Chemistry, Oslo University, Norway, Dr. Smagul. Zh. Karazhanov, Visiting Scientist, Department of Chemistry, Oslo University, Norway, for their valuable help to carry out the theoretical studies.
My thanks are due to Dr. Xavier Mathew, Scientist, CIE, UNAM, Mexico, Dr. S. Velumani, Professor-Investigator, ITESM-Campus Monterrey, University of Mexico and Dr. U. Pal, Professor, University of Pubela, Mexico for their timely and valuable help to carry out XRD, SEM, EDS and AFM measurements.

I wish to thank Dr. A. Sanjeeviraja, Professor and Head, Department of Physics, Alagappa University, Karaikudi and Dr. K. P. Vijayakumar, Professor and Head, Department of Physics, Cochin University of Science and Technology, Cochin for their valuable help to carry out the Photoconduction Studies.

I am deeply grateful to Dr. Akilan Ramanathan, IAS, Additional Private secretary to Minister of State for Health & Family Welfare, Government of India for extending his benevolent, compassionate and very strong support, which has enabled me to carry out this work within the planned timeframe.

I would like to thank with joy all the members of Teaching and Non-teaching staff Physics Department, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore for their encouragement and good wishes throughout the course of my study.

I wish to record my thanks to Mr. S. Chandramohan, M. Sc., M. Phil., and Mr. P. Sudhagar, M. Sc., M. Phil., Ms. V. Manjuladevi, M. Sc., Mr. R. Saravanakumar, M. Sc., Research scholars, Department of Physics, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore for their good support and for creating a supporting atmosphere throughout my course.

I consider it a special privilege to record my immense and everlasting thanks to Mr. K. Rajasekar, M. Sc., B. Ed., M. Phil., Lecturer (SG), Department of Physics, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore, Ms. J. Dheepa M. Sc., M. Phil., PGDCA, Lecturer in Physics, Vellore Institute of Technology, Vellore, Mr. R. Sengodan, M. Sc., M. Phil., Lecturer in Physics, Kumaraguru College of Technology, Coimbatore, Ms. R. Amutha, M. Sc., Ms. M. Hemalatha, M. Sc., past and present Research
Scholars, Department of Physics, Kongunadu Arts and Science College, Coimbatore, for their good support and valuable help during my studies.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Mr. K. Muthukumar, M. A., for his timely assistance in the laboratory works to complete this project in a planned manner.

I do not have adequate words to express my heartiest thanks to my friend Mr. S. Senthilarasu, M. Sc., M. Phil., and my family members who have been extending their greatest support over the years with their everlasting love and care towards me in each and every moment of my sojourn through this rich and rewarding experience.
