ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my guide and supervisor Dr. P. ARUMUGAM, Professor of Economics, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, who gave me an opportunity to work under him. He was the source of inspiration of my research work throughout the period of study. He was kind enough to me by giving valuable guidance, concrete suggestions and encouragement. But for his personal interest and efforts at all stages the study would not have been completed.

I am extremely thankful to Dr. A.M. NALLA GOUNDER, Professor of Econometrics (Retd.), University of Madras for his valuable suggestions and encouragement during the course of the study. The discussion which I had with him were fruitful in shaping the work.

I owe my sincere thanks to Dr. J.B.G. Tilak, Head, Educational Finance Unit, National Institute for Educational Planning and Administration, New Delhi for having encouraged me to undertake the work. His suggestions were very much helpful to shape the work. I like to express my sincere thanks to Prof. D.N. Rao., Centre for Economic Studies and Planning, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi for his constructive suggestions in improving this study.

I am thankful to Dr. B. Shiva Reddy, Reader in Economics, Osmania University, Hyderabad for his help by providing me the relevant literature and suggestions. I am also thankful to Dr. S. Varadarajan, Professor of Agricultural Economics, Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore and Dr. A.S. Seetharamu, Institute of Social and Economic Change, Bangalore for their help and encouragement.
I like to express my sincere thanks to Late Dr. K.N. Reddy, Former Director, Dr. Sudipto Mundle, Dr. Govida Rao and Mr. V. Selvaraju, of National Institute for Public Finance and Policy, New Delhi for their academic help.

I like to thank Dr. S. Perumalsamy, Professor and Head, Dean, Faculty of Arts, Dr. R.S. Dhananjeyan, Professor, Dr. B. Muniyandi, Reader and Dr. V. Anbumani, Lecturer, Department of Economics, Bharathiyar University, Coimbatore for their help and concern during the period of my research work.
