This study has been possible due to the selfless support and co-operation extended to the researcher by professionals, family members and friends. The researcher is grateful to all those who have contributed in a concrete way towards making this effort a reality.

The researcher is profoundly grateful to his guide and former principal, Rev. Fr. Jose Alex CMI, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamassery for his unfailing support, sincere efforts and valuable guidance extended to the researcher.

The researcher is deeply indebted to Rev. Dr. Fr. Antony Kariyil CMI, Principal, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamassery for his constant and continuous encouragement and co-operation.

The researcher was able to accomplish the major task of the data collection due to the continuous support extended to him by the Director and all the Staff at Regional Cancer Centre, Trivandrum. The researcher wishes to place on his deep sense of gratitude to all the cancer patients at the Regional Cancer Centre, Trivandrum, who inspite of the physical distress and agony extended their full co-operation for the study.

The face of Master Sunom who always put a cheerful smile during the course of the illness was the greatest source of inspiration for the researcher during the course of the study.

The researcher is specially grateful to Prof. Kannan of Madurai for having facilitated the computer analysis of the collected data and for giving his expert comments for improving the chapter on analysis of data.

It would not be an exaggeration to state that this study would not have seen the light of day if it were not for the efforts of Mr. Robert George of Kusumagiri Mental Health Centre, who inspite of his busy schedule and work pressures, went through the chapters carefully and gave his objective comments for improving the quality of this research work. Dr. Susy John, Doctors Diagnostic Centre, Ernakulam need to be specially remembered for her involvement and interest in this research work.

Special acknowledgement is made to all the faculty members at Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, for their timely and valuable help and moral encouragement which helped a lot to see the end of research. Researcher is also specially grateful to all the staff at the Rajagiri Computer Centre for their lovable hardwork and sincere efforts in the typing of thesis.

The researcher wishes to place on record his deep sense of gratitude to his parents, his wife, children, brother and brother-in-law for their love and affection which formed as a motivating factor, all through the research. Researchers’ solemn tribute to his sister, who now is in the eternal world after having fought a valiant battle with cancer during the fag end of this research, from whom the researcher has drawn much aspiration and motivation to take up this study.

Lastly, a big thanks to all those, whose name have not been mentioned but still have been lively forces all thorugh the venture in making this research work successful.
