ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With the grace of Almighty and benedictions of His Holiness Syedna Mohammed Burhanuddin Saheb (I.U.S.), this voyage has come to its final halt.

This dissertation was undertaken and completed under the supervision of Dr. Mrs. Mabel Fernandes, Reader, Department of English, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad. Dr. Fernandes has been a great source of encouragement at every stage of the work. Without her patience and guidance this work could not have been completed. A formal acknowledgement can never be an adequate expression of a deep sense of gratitude I owe to her.

I also express my sincerest thanks to Prof. R.S. Kimbhukne, Professor & Head and to all the teachers of the Department of English, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad for their co-operation and guidance which helped me complete this apparently insurmountable project.

I am sincerely thankful to Prof. S.A. Wabah, Ex-Head, Department of English, Ambedkar College of Commerce, Aurangabad for his active involvement in my work. His rich knowledge of Persian, Urdu and Arabic has helped me in varied ways in analyzing the socio-cultural and literary dimensions of Salman Rushdie’s fiction.
I am sincerely thankful to Dr. Hameed Khan, Principal, Sir Sayyed College of Arts, Science & Commerce, Aurangabad for his encouragement, continuous guidance and receptive co-operation.

My sincere thanks to Prof. M.H. Chisty, Department of Commerce, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad for his support, suggestions and inspirations.

I heartily acknowledge my husband Dr. Shafaat Talib and my daughter & Son-in-law Dr. Sadaf & Ali for encouraging me from time to time to succeed in my task.

A word of appreciation for my family and friends for their suggestions and endless patience which has been a constant source of stability and inspiration for me, without their forbearance, tolerance and active participation, this work would not have seen the bright day.

I must also thank Ashok Dahale for preparing the type-script of this dissertation and for bearing with me throughout.

\[\text{Signature}\]

Farida Talib