ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. A.G.Khan, Professor, Department of English, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad, under whose scholarly guidance this thesis was completed. The research discipline and intellectual insights imparted by him have equipped me with a sense of direction and confidence necessary to work on this subject. His patience and understanding, his constant encouragement steered me through the various stages of my research. To work under his guidance has been an enlightening and enriching experience.

I am grateful to the University Grants Commission for granting me study leave under the Faculty Improvement Programme for the year from Dec. 1999 to Dec. 2000. I also thank the Director, International Centre for Indo-American Studies (formerly ASRC) for the award of teacher research fellowship granted in June 1998. These three weeks at the ASRC initiated me in the subject of my research.

I acknowledge my indebtedness to Prof. Ravindra Kimbahune, Mrs. Kimbahune and their family for providing me with "a home away from home" during my stay at Aurangabad. I am grateful to the Head of the Department of English, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University. Dr Satish Deshpande and all the faculty members of the Department of English, Dr. Mabel Fernandes, Dr. Ranveer, Dr. Bhosale and the administrative staff Shri. Pathak and his colleagues.

I wish to put on record my gratitude to the Librarian and staff, ASRC, CIEFL, the Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute, New Delhi. Prof. Mrs. Arti Nanavati, Incharge Director, Canadian Studies centre, M.S. University, Baroda, Prof. Nita Ramiyya, Co-ordinator, Canadian Studies Centre, S.N.D.T. University, Mumbai, and the Librarian, American Centre Library, Mumbai.

Words are inadequate to express my heartfelt thanks to Nanasaheb Shri. Z.B. Patil, Chairman, Jai Hind Educational Trust, Dhule, former Principal Annasaheb N.K. Patil, Dr. M.B. Shah, Prof. Prakash Pathak and Principal of Jai Hind College, Dr. K.B. Patil, who have always been pillars of strength in my moments of grief and trauma. It was only due to their constant vigilance, encouragement, support and affection that I could complete my work.
Dr. Jaganath Wani, President, Maharashtra Seva Samiti, Calgary, Canada and President, K.S. Wani Memorial Trust, Dhule took great pains to make available some rare resources from Canada. His care, kindness and generosity cannot be adequately thanked in words.

Madam Sharada Nayak, Managing Trustee, ERC, New Delhi and Dr. V.K. Arora, Jaipur are my mentors as well as friends. They helped me in more ways than one to get in touch with my inner being. Dr. Jasbir Jain suggested the title of the dissertation. I am grateful to them.

All my colleagues at Jai Hind College and my friends in and outside Dhule showed great care and concern during the years of my research. I thank them all.

I express my sincere thanks to Shri. Nikam for the neat and timely completion of the typing of the manuscript.

My daughter Sonali and son Dr. Abhijit, stood by me in my moments of crises with all their love and provided me with the much needed encouragement and support. My son-in-law Tushar and my grand daughter Nitya have brought a new joy and hope in my life. Atya, my aunt, has always been there with her concern and care throughout my career. My mother, with her indomitable will and never-say-die spirit has been an inspiration in my life. I remain indebted to them all.

Finally, I dedicate my research to the memory of my beloved husband Padmakar, whose dream has been fulfilled today. The warmth of the memories of our life together linger on with their fragrance. I feel his presence in every moment of my life.

Shobha Padmakar Shinde
