ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I sincerely express my deepest sense of gratitude to Dr. V.S. SHITOLE, Reader, Department of Commerce, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad for his learned guidance in this research work. It was really a great pleasure and privilege to work under him. Without his prompt assistance, I could not complete this work.

I must thank Dr. M. U. Deshpande, Reader and Head, Department of Commerce and all faculty members and non-teaching staff of Department of Commerce for their appropriate guidance and timely help which have assisted me in completing this thesis.

I am also thankful to Sarvashri Dr. B.B. Kulkarni, Reader, TMV, Pune, Dr. Iqbal Qureshi, Automobile Engineer, Dr. R.C. Gupta, RTO officials, Union leaders of auto-rickshaw operators & auto-rickshaw owners and all other experts who provided me valuable information about the business of transporting passengers by auto-rickshaws. The officials of Central Institute of Road Transport, Pune, were always kind enough to guide me and provide me a new vision in the subject taken for study. I express a deep sense of gratitude to them.

I must express my sincere gratitude to the officials of the Libraries of Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics, Pune and Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University; they have generously provided the library services to me. Without their cooperation the work would not have been equipped with the recent data. I, hence, thank them too.

Last but not least, I express my thanks to my father Shri. M. P. Vadgule, mother Sou. S. M. Vadgule, sisterss and Mr. Yusuf Khan my bosom friend who stand a source of inspiration in all walks of my life including Ph.D. research work.

Finally, I must also acknowledge the assistance I have received from Shri. Laxmikant Kulkarni, Proprietor, Versity Computers, Aurangabad for the efficient and neat computerization of this thesis.

Subhash M. Vadgule