ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am deeply indebted to my Guide Dr S N Datye, Reader, Department of Political Science, Marathwada University, Aurangabad whose guidance enabled me to complete this work.

I am grateful to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi for awarding me Teacher Fellowship as well as sanctioning research grant to pursue this study. My thanks are also due to the Centre for Social Studies, South Gujarat University, Surat for its active cooperation in computation of data collected for this work.

I acknowledge my sense of gratitude to Padma Vibhushan Shri Govinddas Shroff, the President of Shri Saraswati Bhuvan Education Society, Aurangabad and Principal, Jeewan Desai of S.B.E.S. Arts and Commerce College, Aurangabad for inspiring me to undertake this study.

I am also thankful to Dr R S Morkhandikar and other members of the Department of Political Science, Marathwada University, Aurangabad for their valuable guidance.

I am also thankful to Dr V S Joshi, Ex-Head of the Department of Political Science and Prof S R Tambe, Head of the Department of English, SBES Arts and Commerce College, Aurangabad for their help.
I would be failing in my duties if I do not express my sense of gratitude to all the respondents, the functionaries of the controlling and implementing agencies, the MLAs, the village leaders and the villagers for their cooperation in conducting the survey of this study.

My thanks are also due to my friend Shri B S Patil, Primary Teacher, Vanjarwadi, Tq. Aurangabad, who helped me in arranging the visits to different villages and various EGS work sites.

Lastly I am thankful to Shri U E Pechfule for neat typing of this thesis.
