ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset, I express my deep sense of gratitude to my guide, Dr. J.R. Shinde, Professor and Head, Department of Political Science, Marathwada University, Aurangabad, whose constant encouragement and guidance enabled me to accomplish this research project. I also express my deep sense of gratitude to late Professor Moin Shakir, who initially encouraged me to undertake this research work. I am also thankful to Dr. R.S. Morkhandikar, Dr. P.M. Bora, Dr. A. Y. Darshankar, Dr. H.A. Gani, Dr. Sunil Date, Dr. B.S. Waghmare and Dr. Afaque Khan, for the co-operation they extended to me for completing this work. I also express my thanks to Dr. Naresh Chandra, Principal, Birla College, Kalyan, for granting me study leave in order to complete this research work.

I am indebted to the officials of Marathwada University Library, Aurangabad, The Central Library (Asiatic), Bombay; Fort Library and Jawaharlal Nehru Library, University of Bombay; Central Library and Department of Law Library, Mantralaya, Bombay; Vidhan Bhavan Library, Bombay; Mumbai Marathi Granthasangrahalaya, Bombay; Kesari-Mahratta Trust, Poona; Birla College Library, Kalyan and Department of Archives, Government of Maharashtra, Bombay, for having provided me the material relevant to my research work. I record special thanks to Bhausaheb Lokhande, Shri Mokhale and Shri Meher who provided me their private collection of books and journals for my research project.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not express my deep sense of gratitude to Shri S.N. Bagul, my elder brother, whose personal affection towards me was a constant source of inspiration to complete this research project.

I am thankful to Shri U.E. Pechfule and all other my friends who encouraged me and extended their co-operation in completing this task. Finally, I am thankful to Shri P.L. Barwal, who has typed the thesis neatly and quickly.
