ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The enormous resources of enthusiasm, encouragement and enlightenment bestowed upon me by the Almighty has been the prime motivating force behind the completion of this project. I express my thanks to GOD who has always been very kind and benevolent to me and without whose grace, nothing else would have mattered.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Kuldip Kaur, Professor, Deptt. of Punjab School of Economics, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar who during the course of the study constantly kept encouraging me through her most encouraging and enthusiastic guidance and helpful attitude. She is lamplighter of my academic career. With her invaluable inspiring guidance, through the deep insight of wisdom she unhesitatingly lightened the path to the completion of this project. I stand indebted indeed to this lighthouse of mine.

I have tried my best to access the latest subject matter related to “Investment Climate and Efficiency: An Analysis of Industrial sector of Punjab and Haryana”. I thank the writers and researchers who made my task easy and gave me the benchmark to proceed further in the realm of research.

There are no words to express my feeling towards my husband, my daughter, my grandfather, my father in law, my mother in law, my mother and my sisters who let me imagine and encouraged me to dream. Their discipline blended with love, enabled me with great care to stick to this project. Mr. Devi Dass my father-in-law, Mrs. Santosh saini my mother, Mr. Vikram my beloved husband, Preeti, Rajia and Ashu my sisters and Vishal and Vikrant my brother-in-laws are the largest reservoir of motivation, love and care which enabled me to grow mentally to be an achiever. They are the creators. I am indebted to them for the sacrifice they made for me.

I thank all my saini family members and my in-laws who have always been a source of encouragement for me. They always stood by me in difficult times and showed me the right path.

I am indebted to all my teachers for their motivation. I would also like to thank the library staff of Bhai Gurdas library, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, Punjab School of Economics, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for extending full co-operation throughout the period of my research work. I thank S. Sukhdev Singh from computers department, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar who rendered extensive support in analyzing the statistical data.

The kind attitude of all faculty members and non-teaching staff is highly acknowledged. These words fall aligned on these pages so beautifully by Staff of Supertek Computer. I feel indebted to them for their co-operative nature.
