Acknowledgement

Any assignment puts to litmus test an individual’s knowledge, credibility and experience and thus sole efforts of an individual are not sufficient to accomplish the desired goal. Successful completion of this thesis involves interests and efforts of many people, which makes it obligatory on my part to record my thanks to them.

I wish to express my profound gratitude to the Almighty God with whose grace and blessing, I have been able to complete another chapter of my life. Words cannot express the deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness.

I extend sincere thanks with immense pleasure and deep regards to my guide Dr. Manisha Sharma, Assistant Professor, Department of Distance Education, Punjabi University, Patiala. It is because of her perfect, prudent and precise guidance, cool counselling and overall ever-ready attitude to help that I have been able to complete this Herculean task with her clam, quiet and friendly personality she was always approachable.

I am indebted to my parents S. Ram Singh and Mrs. Darshan Kaur for inculcating in me the dedicating and discipline to do whatever I undertake. I am also thankful to my younger brother Er. Manjinder Singh, who made all efforts to get my thesis completed within the specific period.

I also acknowledge with thanks the help rendered by the librarians and other staff of Bhai Khan Singh Nabha, Library of Punjabi university, Patiala. I am thankful to the staff of Department of Economics for their co-operation and help to the official level.
I would also like to thank all the Officers of Agriculture Department of Punjab, Chandigarh and also the officers of Punjab State Power Corporation of Punjab, Patiala, who at all times treated me as a part of their department and not as an outsider.

Last, but not the least the contribution of my friends is also beyond the limits of words and sentences. I extend thanks and appreciation to everyone who have helped me directly or indirectly to get this work done at a given time.

Rajwinder Kaur
