ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With prostration and homage to the Triple Gem, I would like to take some words to convey from the depth of my heart my sincere gratitude and thanks to all the kind souls in the following list who have helped me in making this work a successful one.

My parents, Mr. Somvong and Mrs. Lumjiak Innunjai, whose constant concern and advice moulded me into a good citizen of the world.

My guide, Dr. D.D. Kachole, for helping me from day one till the end, whose sterling guidance gave me light in the darkness and whose sheer willingness to spare his precious time and going beyond his way in helping me is an embodiment of total generosity and understanding. I am indebted to him immensely.

My sister and brother-in-law Mrs. Kannikar and Mr. Thanongsak Kesama for providing me everything that I needed while pursuing my studies here. And I also wish to express my feeling of devotion and gratitude to all relatives who are looking forward to my research work with their patience and constant inspirations.

My Thailand friends, studying in India P.M. Prayoon Suyajai, P.M. Songchai Promjat, Dr. P.M. Niyom Kwampean, P.M. Somran Chanyacharoen, P. Bancha Pimai, P.M. Sanit Yuenyong, P.M. Rangsan Janthal, P.M. Chanai Watthana, P.M. Niyom Arnmai, P.M. Thongchan Suwong, P.Chatchayam Sayampho, P.M.Jutiporn Ruksamam, P.M. Boontan Jampathong, P.Uten Larping, P. Chumpol Thongmal, Phrakruvititsasanatorn, P.M. Sillapa Hinchesiri, P.M. Sutin Phanit, P.M. Narongsak Lunsomrong, P. M. Preeda Buamuang, Mr. Soemsak Nakpot, Mr. Adul Chaibee, Mr. Vinich and all Thai students in Mysore, Chennai, Aurangabad, India, for their exemplary help in doing every minute thing that I needed to get done in time. Their friendship gave me strength to do more than I could imagine to do on my own.

My Tibetan friends Mr. Penpa Sangpo & family, Mr. Samkyil Palden and family, Mr.K.D.Dawa Tsering, for their helping hands in collecting the data and calling me to take pictures during the eventful days and for providing me accommodation during my field works in their settlements, I owe them greatly for making my mission possible.
I also thank my Indian supporters especially Mr. C. V. Rangaraju, Mrs. M. R. Sukanya, Mrs. C. R. Sandhya and her husband and Miss C. R. Soumya, Prof. B. Gururaja and family, Prof. Dr. T. Manian and family, Prof. Dr. Y. S. Sedegowda and family, Prof. Dr. Gunjanan and family, Prof. Dr. K. Ramaswamy and family, Noori, Babu and family, Mr. Kiran and Mrs. Sanjana, Miss Asha Merlin Francis and family, Dr. Khan, Mr. Jumbade and family and Ms. P. Padmashree who had supported and encouraged me all throughout this period. They gave me their wholesome support in my daily execution of work for completing my thesis and I owe them my sincere and heartfelt gratitude.

I also owe my sincere thanks to all the Tibetan officials of the representatives of both the settlements and head of villages of both the settlements, for given me complete co-operation in providing the relevant information and their understanding of my work with gave me their kind smiles and encouragement. They are a part of the progress I have made.

The two Indian Universities which helped me a lot to gain access to their resourceful books through their libraries and Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, and Mysore University. The Vice Chancellor of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University gave me his kind support and encouraged me. I thank him sincerely for his help. The Principal of Deogiri College, Aurangabad, had given me his permission to get any access to information which would have been of help to me. I am very grateful to him for his generosity and also thankful to him for having given me the moral support and determination in doing my work.

I also thank typists, Miss Roopalatha Prasanna, Mr. Sandeep Kachole, Rajiv and Sanjeev Choutmal brothers, for having typed my manuscripts. After all my field work was done, it would not have reached this stage had it not for the painstaking work done by my typists. I owe them my sincere thanks and I am grateful for their last minute advices.

Lastly, I do express my indebtedness to all who helped me directly or indirectly to make my research dream become a reality, what it is today, in the from of this Ph. D. Thesis.

PHRAMAHA SAYAN INNUNJAI