ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Women and Depressed Classes were the weaker and down-trodden sections of the society who sought social protection through legislations. This thesis titled "Impact of Social Legislations on Women and Depressed Classes in Tamil Nadu (1920-’76 A.D.)" is the outcome of my research study under the able and inspiring guidance of Dr. (Mrs.) V. Balambal, M.A., B.T., Ph.D., F.R.A.S. (London), Professor of History, University of Madras, Madras-600 005 during 1993-’96. I express my profound gratitude to my Guide and Supervisor Dr. (Mrs.) V. Balambal, M.A., B.T., Ph.D., F.R.A.S. (London), for her valuable suggestions, constant encouragement, consistent guidance, continued interest, Motherly treatment and her Scholarly touch at every stage of this study. Her unfeeling and strong support during the period of my research has enabled me to complete the thesis fruitfully. I am grateful to her for the freedom that she gave me to design my research work as per my wish.

I am grateful to the authorities of the University of Madras and Dr. P. Jagadeesan, M.A. (His), M.A. (Pol), B.Ed., Ph.D., Professor and Head of the Department of Indian History, for having permitted me to do research in the Department of Indian History.

I am also grateful to Dr. G. Thangavelu, M.A., B.L., B.Litt., O.T., Ph.D., Former Professor and Head of the Department, School of Historical Studies, Madurai Kamaraj University, who remained a constant source of inspiration throughout this endeavour by extending timely moral and material support.

I extend my thanks to the Commissioner, Staff and especially Dr. Sunderraj of the Tamilnadu Archives, Madras. I also thank Mr. Sundarraj, Librarian, Anna Arivaleeyam, Madras, Connemara State Central Library, Madras, Secretariat Library and Assembly Library, and Hindu Religious Endowment Board, for their permission and cooperation to utilize the source materials.

I express my thanks to Mr. Viduthalei Virumbi, Ex-Member of the Parliament for his help in getting some source materials.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Marimuthu and Mr. Mohandass Pillai, Research Scholars, Department of Indian History, for their valuable help.

I am thankful to all my friends, who helped me to complete this thesis. I must also thank Mr. Tiruvenkatam, who executed this thesis very neatly.

S. Mageswari

S. MAGESWARI