Acknowledgement

It gives me great pleasure to submit the present thesis entitled “A study of reading habits, reading skills and their relationship with certain demographical and psychological variables”.

In preparing this thesis I have been aided by a large number of dedicated, talented people. I can’t possibly thank all of them here. But I wish to express my appreciation to them whose help has been most valuable.

First and foremost, my sincere thanks to my respected “Guru” and Guide Dr. P.S. Bansod for his valuable guidance to the work right from conceptualization to the end. It was a great privilege to be with him. I am extremely indebted to him for his keen interest inspite of his busy schedule. His constant guidance and support has enabled me to put forward my efforts in the present form. His personality and unique style of supervision made me carry out my research work with low stress but high motivation and work involvement. My most special thanks are due to him for constant encouragement and cooperation, he extended for successful completion of this study.

I would like to thank, my Guru, Dr. R.R. Borude, the Ex-head Department of Psychology, Govt. College of Arts and Science, Aurangabad, for his valuable cooperation, motivation and help in my work.

I am grateful to Dr. B.R. Shejwal, Department of Psychology, University of Pune, for his sincere help in statistical analysis.

My sincere thanks to my colleagues Shri. D.G. Rande, Shri. S.T. Patil, Shri. V.F. Desale, Dr. Kelkar, Dr. Gandhe for their timely suggestions and cooperation.
I am particularly beholden to Dr. Anil Sahastrabuddhe, Principal, Pemraj Sarda College, Ahmednagar and my higher authorities for granting me permission to carry out this work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to those youths who willingly cooperated me in collecting the required data.

I cannot forget one person, my wife Rajani, who has given me motivation and continued support, from time to time to execute this work. I have kept these memories very specially in my heart.

I am grateful to Mr. Nitin Ambilwade for neat and clear typing of this thesis.
