This thesis would not have seen the light of day without the help and encouragement of my research supervisor Prof. Ravi Korisettar. I express my sincere thanks and gratitude to him for his guidance, care and support at all times.

I extend my gratitude to present Chairman and faculty of the Department of History and Archaeology, Karnataka University, Dharwad for extending support to my research.

I am grateful to Prof. A. Ekambaranathan, the late Dr. B. Narasimaiah, Dr. C. Margabandhu, Dr. K. Rajan, Dr. D. Dayalan, Dr. Nambirajan, Dr. S. Suresh, Dr. Selvakumar, Sh. K.T. Gandhirajan and Sh. Ravi Chandrane, who boosted my interest in the subject during the graduation years.

Special thanks to Ramesh & Sridhar (both from Villupuram), Annaduarai (Cuddalore), Narayana Murthy (Bank Manager from Vadalur), teacher couple Mr. Veera Ragavan and Mrs. Mangaiaarkarasi (from Villupuram) to accompany me during the course of field work in the study area and discussed various aspects of the present research.

To my friends – Janardhana, Shankar Poojar, Jinu, Kalyan and Udayashakar- I owe a lot for all those days of fun and stress that we shared together.

Looking back, I remember my parents Shri. A. Thangasamy and Smt. Maragatham with immense respect, without their constant support and encouragement I would not have reached this stage. To them I dedicate this work. My two brothers & one sister and my lovable wife showed equal interest in my work and also helped me in many ways. I owe them a debt of gratitude.
