ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With prostration and homage to the Triple Gem, I would like to take some words to convey from the depth of my heart my sincere gratitude and thanks to all the kind souls in the following list who have helped me in making this work a successful one.

First, I am very much grateful in all my walks of life to my father and mother, MR. SAWAENG AND MRS. KAMTA PHANIT, whose gave me birth and constant concern and advice moulded me into a good citizen of the country.

Second, It was a great privilege to be associated with DR. D. D. KACHOLE my guide, under whose guidance constant encouragement and support this research work was carried out. I am extremely indebted to him for his keen interest taken in my work inspite of his busy schedule, which enabled me to put forward my effort in the present form. His valuable guidance and advice both are simply unforgettable. I have kept these memories very respectfully in my very deep corner of the heart.

In 1997, I was awarded a scholarship by the patronage PHRARAJMUNI Abbot of wat Asasonkgarm, Samutprakarn and came to Banaras Hindu University. At that time I got admission to M.A. Course in the Department of Sociology. My first visit to India impressed me very much, especially when I visited to the holy Lord Buddha's places at Sarnath in varanasi.

In 1999, after completing my M.A. in sociology. I was awarded a scholarship by patronage Phrarajmuni Abbot of wat Asasonkgarm, Samutprakarn again.

In 2001 I come to Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University and get registered for the PhD. Degree in the Department of Sociology.

My great spiritual teachers, Ven. Boonme Punnadhammo Ven. Phrakrusamuha Boonsong Chinavaro  when I was novice Ven. Phrarajmuni my preceptor and Ven. Phrasrimongkolmethee my teacher at present who give me mental strength and balanced my emotional stage in the ever fluctuating world for a peaceful and meaningful living. I am extremely thankful to them all.

I also wold like to give my special thanks to members of my family, who helped me by giving financial support for my education in Thailand and India. Special thanks to my step mother KHUN ANONG SRIBOUR and my sister KHUN ORPIN PHANIT who always give moral support to me during my stay in India.

I, also thank Government of India, Ministry of Human Resource Development India, Vice Chanrcellor of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University and the principal of Deogiri College for encouraging me at all stages of my study. I am extremely thankful to them all.

I, also thank staff members of Library, staff members of Post Graduate section and all the officers of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University for their valuable suggestions and providing me with many facilities during the period of my research.

My Thailand friends, studying in India Dr. P. M. Prayoon Suyajai, Dr. P. M. Thongchan Suwong, P. Bancha Pimai, P. M. Pojh Chanpo, P. M. Suthon Tisanthia, P. M. Nupat Kongbang and all of Thai students in Aurangabad and Banaras Hindu University India, who have helped and given me best wishes during the period of my research work. My Indian friends Mr. More, Tukaram Wandhare, G. R. Mudholkar, for their helping hands in collecting the data and calling me to be accompanied with him during my field works. I am also extremely thankful to them all. I also own my sincere thanks to all the respondents from both cities, for given me complete co-operation in providing the relevant information and their understanding of my work with gave me their kind smiles and encouragement. They are a part of the progress I have made. I also thank Mr. Jumbade and all members of his family, who gave me accommodation's facilities during my period of research work. My special thanks to them for all their kindness. I reserve special thanks to
Mrs. Kanchan Jumbade and Mr. Milind Pathale for giving me a correct and perfect English advice and suggestion on my research thesis. I am grateful to them for their kindness.

I also thank typists, Mr. Sandeep Kachole, Rajiv and Sanjeev Choutmal brothers and Vijay for having typed my manuscripts. After all my field work was done, it would not have reached this stage that it not for the painstaking work done by my thesis. I own them my sincere thanks and I am greatful for their last minute advices.

Lastly, I do express my indebtedness to all who helped me directly or indirectly to make research dream become a reality, what it is today in the term of this Ph. D. Thesis.
