CONTENTS

Acknowledgements                                        i - ii
List of Tables                                           iii - vi
List of Diagrams/Graphs                                 vii
List of Photographs                                     viii
List of Maps                                             ix
List of Appendices                                      x
Glossary                                                xi-xiv

Chapters

I.  Introduction                                         1- 33

Significance of the Study- Nature and Scope of the Study- Area of the Study- Review of Literature- Literature related to theoretical and conceptual frame - Literature pertaining to river as natural landscape - Literature pertaining to river as cultural landscape - Literature related to cultural life of the folk of Kerala especially, on the banks of the river Bharathappuzha - Lacunae in the existing literature - Hypothesis - Aims and Objectives of the Study – Methodology - Sources of Study - Primary sources - secondary sources - Brief Chapterisation.

II.  River and Cultural Life - A Conceptual Frame        34-92

V. Bhagavathi: Myth and Worship

VI. Ritual Performances on the Banks -Towards Identity

Formation

253-328

Ritual Performances of Kerala- an overview - Ritual performances on the Banks of Bharathappuzha - Ritual Performances; Origin Part of Bharathappuzha- Tolpavakoothu (Shadow Puppetry) - Performance Structure of Tolpavakoothu - Parayeduppu (collecting paddy) - Kathirvaravu/Kathirvela (procession with the spike of paddy corn) - Kodyettam (flag hoisting) - Pankali (a play by Panan community) - Paana (material objects as ritual offering) - Kanyarkali - Ritual Performances: Middle Part of Bharathappuzha - Thira and Poothan – Poothan – Thira Thirrakali - Kalamezhuthupaatu (floral drawing song) - Kalamezhuthu (Drawing of kalam) - Kalam Puja - Kalampaatu (kalam song) - Kalamthullal (kalam dancing) – Dharikavadham - Kalavela (Ox Procession) - Pooram Ezhunallippu (Procession of Bhagavathi) - Ritual Performances: End Part of Bharathappuzha – Guruthi.

VII. Conclusion

329-357

Appendices

358-375

Photographs

376-378

Bibliography

379-400