ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis would not been complete without the invaluable guidance and continuous encouragement of my advisor Dr. (Mrs.) Shubhada Tamhankar. I am deeply grateful to her for her peer supervision, constructive comments and endless support throughout my Ph.D. course. I value her concerns and motivation and discussions with her have been very stimulating and helpful in making the most logical plan of action for work. In spite of an excellent mentor, she is a great human being. She always finds out the way when there is no way. Words are really not enough to express my gratitude to her. Dear Madam, I am indebted to you for your enormous support in materializing this work coming into reality. I will always remember you as a role model in my career.

My heartfelt thanks to Late Dr. S. G. Patil for giving me the opportunity to work in Genetics group and helping me till his last breath. He was encouraging, supportive and always ready for new ideas. Today he is not in us but we will always cherish him in our memories.

I express my gratitude to Dr. G.S. Karibassappa, National Research Centre for Grapes, Pune for his timely help in providing plant material as well as valuable suggestions during the course of my research work.

I am thankful to Dr. Amol, Bharati, Nandini and Vinaya for their contribution in ISSR and nrSSR analyses. My special thanks go to Nandini for always being with me.

I am grateful to Mrs. Surekha Karkamkar and Dr. Rani for identification of taxa from Vitaceae and Gurav mama for helping me during the collection tours.

I am thankful to the Director, Agharkar Research Institute for providing me the research facilities. The support and encouragement provided by our group in charge Dr. S.C. Misra is greatly acknowledged. The financial support from DBT is greatly acknowledged.

I also thank Dr. Sanjay Kumar Singh and Dr. Prashant Dhapephalkar for providing me the microbial cultures and laboratory facilities. I am thankful to Mr. Dhiraj, NCCS, Pune, for helping me in PAUP analysis.

I express my gratitude to Dr. Vidya Gupta, National Chemical Laboratory, Pune, for her critical suggestions throughout my Ph.D. course.

I am grateful to Dr. V.S. Rao, Dr. M. D. Bhagwat, Dr. S.S. Gandhi, Dr. G.B. Halvankar, Dr. S. P. Taware, Dr. Phillips, Dr. B. K. Honrao, Dr. Manoj Oak, Dr. Sujata Tetali, Mr. V.M.Khade, Mr. A. M. Chavan, Mr. V. D. Surve for their timely help and encouragement. I am also thankful to scientific and non-scientific staff of ARI, especially the Genetics family, for their help, encouragement and good-will.
