CONTENTS

Acknowledgements .............................................................. i - ii
List of Tables .......................................................................... iii
List of Diagrams ........................................................................ iv
List of Narratives ....................................................................... v - vi
List of Photographs .................................................................... vii
Glossary .................................................................................. viii - x
Maps ....................................................................................... xi - xii

Chapters

I. Introduction .......................................................... 1-37
Introduction - Significance of the Study - Nature and Scope of study - Geographical area of study - Survey of Literature - Research Work on folk narrative Research and Identity- Status of Knowledge on Ao-Nagas - Colonial Writings - Post Colonial Writings - Field Methodology and data Processing - Lacunae of previous study – Hypotheses - Aims and Objectives – Methodology - Primary Sources - Secondary sources – Methods - Chapterisation.

II. An Overview of Ao-Naga Cultural Life .................. 38-76
III. Origin and Dispersal of Nagas: A Folkloric Perspective 77-100

Migration and origin of the Nagas - Origin myths with regard to Naga migration - Ao-Nagas’ Worldview - The geography and environment of Ao-land as reflected in Myth of Lijaba - Myth of Longterok - Origin of the clans - birds - animals - celestial bodies.

IV. Ao-Naga Narrative Typology and Structure: Metaphors of Identity 101-121

V. Social Organization: Reflections in Folklore 122-155

Ao-Naga Family - Division of labour in the family - Family inheritance - Status of an Ao woman in the family - Patriarchy in Ao-Nagas - Construction of masculinity - Kinship - Ao-Naga kin relationship in social life - Family succession - Debt - Clan system - Ao marriage system - Institution of Marriage - Divorce and re-marriage - Types of marriages - Identity through the distinction of marriage system between the Ao and the others - Gender and power relationship in Ao-Naga family system - Husband Vs. wife - Parents Vs. children - Sibling relationships - Relationship with in-laws.

VI. Life Cycle Rituals as Cultural Metaphor 156-210

Ritual Theories - Life Cycle Ceremonies - The Child Birth Rite - The ritual process - Pre-Birth Rite - Post-Birth Rite - Analysis - Symbolism - Puberty ritual - Puberty rites of girls - Tattooing - Art of Tattooing - Tattooing instruments - Colour and Designs of the tattoo - Ritual Clothing - Piercing of upper earlobes - Girls’ dormitory - Puberty rites of the boys - Piercing of upper earlobes - Boys’ dormitory -
First age group - Second age group - Third age group - Analysis - Marriage rite - Traditional Ao-Naga Marriage ceremony - Phase I - Phase II - Phase III - Phase IV - Post-marriage - Contemporary Ao-Naga marriage ceremony - Analysis - Symbolism - Asümong - Death rite - Concept of death among Ao-Nagas - Beliefs associated with Death - Pantheon associated with death - Traditional Ao-Naga death ceremony - Contemporary death ceremony - Analysis - Symbolism

VII. Communal Rites as Markers of Identity 211-235

Socio-Religious rituals - Ao-Naga religion and ritual observances - Ritual process of Lijabamong - Symbolism - Social rituals - Political rituals - Names of the generation - Seed sowing festival - Analysis - symbolism.

VIII. Conclusion 236-251

Bibliography 252-264