ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, I owe my sincere gratitude to Dr. A. B. Kalkundrikar, Professor & Research Guide in Commerce and Director, Institute of Management Education and Research Centre, Belgaum under whose valuable guidance and advice and with unstinted support and enthusiastic encouragement, this study has been successfully completed.

I offer my profound respects to Dr. B. M. Wali for his constant moral support and all encouragement throughout the study period along with his valuable suggestions in bringing out the research work. I equally pay my respects to Dr. K. S. Daniel, Prof. C. M. Kotturshetty, and former Chairmen, Department of Studies in Commerce and Research, Karnataka University Dharawad. I would be failing in my duty if I don’t thank the present Chairman, Dr. S. S. Hugar for his co-operation till the end of the study period.

The accomplishment of this task would have been simply difficult, had not, the Management of Karnataka Law Society, and Governing Body on Gogte College of Commerce, Belgaum permitted me to take up this research study under the U.G.C. FIP programme. I humbly thank the Management and in particular I owe my respects to Shri. S. M. Kulkarni, Advocate, Shri. M. R. Kulkarni, Advocate Shri. R. H. Kulkarni, Advocate and Late, Shri. V. S. Kulkarni (Kalolkar) Advocate, & Late, Shri. G. V. Kulkarni (Exambekar) Advocate whose blessings I miss at this juncture of submitting of my work.

I thank the Principal, for his co-operation during the study period.

KARALELIMATH.
I sincerely thank Vice-Chancellor, Dr. A.M. Pathan, Karnataka University Dharawad for permitting me to avail study leave on behalf of University Grants Commission, New Delhi and the administrative support of Dr. B.P. Waghmare, Director College Development Council, I thank Dr (Mrs). A. Janaki, Joint Director, Collegiate Education, Regional Office Dharawad for relieving me on time to report for my Ph.D. study under the U G C - F I P Scheme, Whose support filled in me all the strength in the successful accomplishment of the task, which, I never forget on this occasion.

I thank the Govt and Non-Govt organisations that provided the relevant data for my study.

For the great sacrifice of his share of love and missing of the possible attention during the study and working hours of mine, I never compensate back to my lovely son Master. Shashank. M. Hiremath, rather he helped me to work day and night on computer. He was a great source of immediate and any time help while working on computer, whose contribution is enormous and unforgettable. My husband Prof. M.G. Hiremath, who is also my colleague and simultaneously doing his research on “Salary and Wage Administration in commercial Banks”, has contributed lot in different forms all along with me for which words fall short to appreciate the same. I thank my niece Prema, who helped me during the study. The un-flinching moral support of my brother-in-law Dr [Prof]. C.R. Hiremath and my sister Prof [Smt] Uma.C. Hiremath, Hubli and Shakti for their constant source of inspiration in all odds and evens throughout the period of my study, for whose concern of all these persons I am always grateful. I also thank my beloved brother Chandrashekhar, sisters Manjula, Saroja, Sheelu and their families for having inspired me during my Research work. I thank my Nephew Kaleshwar and his son Ritesh for their timely assistance. I also thank Ramesh. Patil of SYSCON for assisting me to work on computer. How can I forget the Blessings of my in-law Parents in completing this task successfully?

I thank Sri. Hosamani for assisting me in Marathi translation and my friends, well wishers and colleagues, who inspired me in all the stupendous task of completing this thesis on time. I thank once again all the persons who have contributed directly and indirectly and have shown deep concern towards me and my work.
