Acknowledgement

First of all, I would like to express my thanks and gratitude to the Almighty, the most beneficent and merciful who granted me health, ability and strength for successful completion of this venture, which helped me to overcome the troubles and difficulties with vigor and vitality.

I am highly indebted and hence would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Prof. R. D. Gurjar, Department of Geography, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur who enlightened my way to complete this work. I feel blessed to have the opportunity to work and learn under his guidance. Gurjar Sir is not only an outstanding scientist, but above all, a great human being. As a mentor, he knew exactly when to give me the freedom to pursue a new avenue of research, when to cheer me up and exactly how to provide motivative and constructive criticism.

It is my privilege to acknowledge Prof. R. D. Doi, Professor and Head, Department of Geography, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur for allowing me to complete this work. I extend my sincere thanks to Prof. R. K. Gurjar and Prof. R. N. Mishra, Professor and Head (Ex.) Department of Geography, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur for their constant help and giving me permission to carry out my research activity in or outside the department. Their valuable and critical suggestions were a constant source of encouragement through the entire course of this work. I am also thankful to Prof. H. S. Sharma, Professor & Head (Rtd.) Department of Geography, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur for his valuable help and moral support.

I gratefully acknowledge Dr. Seema Jalan for her understanding, encouragement and personal attention and help in correction of the manuscript.

I convey my thanks and regards to Dr. T. I. Khan, Director IGC for IIEPS and Ms. Shikha Nainawat, Assist. Professor, University of Rajasthan,
Jaipur, for the guidance provided time to time during my work, I highly appreciate the cooperation and help provided by him.
