Acknowledgement

This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues in various institutions. At the end of my thesis I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me. It is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an experience for me.

At this moment of accomplishment, first of all I pay homage to my guide, Dr. D. SAI SUJATHA. This work would not have been possible without her guidance, support and encouragement. Her words always inspire me and brought me to a higher level of thinking. What I learn from her is not just how to write a thesis, but how to view this world from a new perspectives. Without her kind and patient instruction, it is impossible for me to finish this thesis.

I express my gratitude to Prof. P. Vinayaka Murthy, Head of the Department of Population and Social Work and I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to BOS Chairperson Prof. T. Lakshmamma, for their support and valuable suggestions.

I acknowledge my sincere gratitude to the entire faculty Prof. M.Uhaidullah, Prof. V.K. Ravindra Kumar, Prof. M. Hari, Prof. K. Rajasekhar, and Prof. T. Chandrasekhariah of population studies & social works Department, S.V university, Tirupathi, for their support and encouragement.

I pay my respectful thanks to all experts who have contributed their suggestions by validating tool and teaching module.
I would like to extend my gratefulness to Mrs P, Lavanya Kumari, Statistician S.V.Agricultural College, Tirupathi for her help in the statistical analysis.

I am grateful to all the women of YSR district, who are participated in my study.

Finally, I must express my very profound gratitude to my dear parents Mr. Subbarayudu & Mrs. Rajeswari, my brother Arjun who always wanted to higher up the knowledge and perform well and who always strengthened me their love, affection and comforting words.

My heartfelt praise and in depth gratitude to my husband Mr. D.C.V Ramana and my dearest son & daughter for their love, sacrifice, encouragement and constant supporting completing this work.

I convey my thanks to all non teaching staff department of population studies & social work for their cooperation.

I express my thanks to Mr. Hari, for typing data. and lastly, to the people who helped and contribute great ideas and advices, especially classmates and close friends for without them, this study would not be possible.

Venkatasubbamma....