Acknowledgements

I wish to express my deepest gratitude to Prof. Y.C. Ratnakaram, Professor and Head, Department of Physics, S.V. University, Tirupati, for accepting to supervise my PhD work and giving an opportunity to join as a project fellow in UGC-MRP sanctioned to him in spite of his busy schedule. He not only guided me but also supported me in various aspects to complete this work. Without his continuous support, great help, observations, critical reading of this thesis, suggestions and stimulated discussions on various aspects and dynamic encouragement throughout the course of this work, I could not have done this research work.

I am highly thankful to Prof. S. Uthanna, Chairman, Board of Studies and Prof. S. Buddhudu, former Chairman, Board of studies, Department of Physics and Vice-principal, S.V.U. College of Sciences for their cooperation and support during the period of my research work in the department.

My thanks are also due to Prof. K.V.S. Sarma, Principal, S.V. University College of Sciences for his kind cooperation and administrative support. I express my grateful thanks to Prof. K. Jayantha Rao, Dean, Faculty of Sciences, for his encouragement and cooperation. I extend my grateful thanks to Prof. J. Lakshmana Rao (Retd.), Prof. K. Ravindra Prasad (Retd.), Dr. R.P. Vijaya Lakshmi, Associate Professor and Dr. S. Venkatramana Reddy, Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, S.V. University, Tirupati and Dr. B. Nagaraja, Associate Professor, Department of Economics, S.V. University, for their valuable help in many aspects during my research work. I also extend my thanks to Prof. P. Sreedhara Reddy, Prof. C.K. Jayasankar, Prof. K.T. Ramakrishna Reddy, Prof. O. Mahammod Hussain, Department of Physics, and Prof. C. Suresh Reddy, Department of Chemistry, S.V. University, Tirupati for their help and encouragement in recording the XRD, SEM, Optical Absorption, Photoluminescence and FT-IR spectra.
I express my sincere thanks to University Grant Commission, New Delhi for providing Fellowship through Major Research Project sanctioned to my research supervisor (during 2011-2014), Department of Physics, S.V. University.

I express my gratefulness to Dr. S. Ananthi, Associate Professor, Central Instrumentation and service and Dr. V. Ravi Chandran, Department of Nuclear Physics, University of Madras and Dr. R. Murugesan, Scientific officer grade I, IIT, Chennai for their help in recording the XRD, FT-IR spectra of samples Prof. K. Chowdoji Rao, Department of Polymer Science and Technology, S.K. University, Ananthapur and Dr. Deepak Chopra, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, IISER Bhopal for their help in recording the differential scanning calorimetry (DSC) spectra and for their valuable assistance during this thesis work.

My sincere thanks are also to my senior colleagues Dr. M. Seshadri, Post Doctoral Fellow, Brazil, Dr. K. Venkattrao and Mr. M.V. Sasi Kumar, Dept. of Physics and Mr. B. Satheesh Krishna, Department of Chemistry, S.V. University, for their cooperation in the laboratory during my course period. I express my heartfelt and grateful thanks to all my laboratory colleagues: Mr. D. Rajesh, Mr. M. Damodhara Naidu, Mr. K. Brahmachari, Mr. S. Babu and Mr. V. Reddy Prasad for their cooperation and help. I thank all my other research scholar friends especially Dr. D. Amarnatha Reddy, Dr. G. Murali, G. Karthick Kumar Reddy, M.S. Arunachalam, V. Naresh, R. Ramaraghavulu, B. Chandra Babu, K. Naveen kumar, Dr. B. Jaya Prakash, Sk. Nayab Rasool, Dr. Y. Ashok kumar Reddy, U. Chalapathi, P. Poorna Prakash, L. Sai Krishna, N. Venkateswarlu and K. Chandra Sekhar of the department for their encouragement and cooperation extended to me at all times of my approach.

With gratitude, I take the privilege of acknowledging my beloved parents: Smt. A. Veeramma and Sri. A. Subbarayudu for their sacrifice for my well-being with their rich blessings on me to come up well in my career and life, my brother and sister-in-law Sri. A. Venkatasubbaiah and Smt. A. Kalyani and my ever loving sisters for their moral support and sustained encouragement all along.
