BIBLIOGRAPHY
BIBLIOGRAPHY

Primary Sources

Books

Other Publications

Non-Fiction

---------- Dust Tracks on a Road. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott, 1942. Print

Short stories

----------. “Sweat, "Fire!!" 1 (November 1926): Print

----------. “How It Feels to Be Colored Me.” World Tomorrow 11 (May 1928). Print

----------. “The Eatonville Anthology”. Messenger 8 (September, October, November 1926). Print
Plays

Color Struck: A Play, Fire!! 1 (November 1926). Print

----------------. The First One: A Play. In Ebony and Topaz, Charles S. Johnson, National Urban League, 1927. Print

----------------. “Cudjo’s Own Story of the Last African Slaver.” Journal of Negro History 12 (October 1927). Print

Articles

----------------. “John Redding Goes to Sea.” Stylus 1 (May 1921): Print

----------------. In Opportunity 4 (January 1926): Print.

----------------. “Drenched in Light.” Opportunity 2 (December 1924): Print

----------------. “Drenched in Light.” Opportunity 3 (June 1925): Print

----------------. “Albert and Charles Boni”, 1925. Print

----------------. “Muttsy”. Opportunity 4 (August 1926): Print

----------------. “Hoodoo in America.” Journal of American Folklore 44 (October-December 1931): Print

----------------. “The Gilded Six-Bits.” Story 3 (August 1933). Print

----------------. “The Fire and the Cloud.” Challenge I (September 1934). Print

----------------. “High John de Conquer.” American Mercury 57 (October 1943). Print

----------------. “Negroes without Self-Pity.” American Mercury 57 (November 1943). Print

----------------. “The Last Slave Ship.” American Mercury 58 (March 1944) Condensed in Negro Digest 2 (May 1944). Print

----------------. “My Most Humiliating Jim Crow Experience.” Negro Digest 2 (June 1944). Print

----------------. “Crazy for This Democracy.” Negro Digest 4 (December 1945). Print

----------------. “Conscience of the Court.” Saturday Evening Post (March 18, 1950). Print

“A Negro voter Sizes Up Taft.” Saturday Evening Post (December, 1951). Print

Walker Alice

Books

Other Publications

By The Light of My Father’s Smile (1998). Print

Articles

“Am I Blue? Ain’t These Tears in These Eyes Telling You?” Ms July 1986. Print

“What can the White Man… Say to the Black Women?” Nation 22 May (1989). Print

Interviews of Alice Walker

The Same River Twice: Honoring the Difficult-1995. Print

Civil Rights Movement: Was It Good? Print

Anything We Love Can Be Saved: A Writer’s Activism (1997). Print

Go Girl!: The Black Woman’s Book of Travel and Adventure (1997). Print

Pema Chodron and Alice Walker in Conversation (1999). Print

We Are the Ones We Have Been Waiting For (2006). Print

Overcoming Speechlessness (2010). Print
Short Stories

---------.  Everyday Use (1973). Print
---------.  I Love Myself When I Am Laughing(). Print
---------.  To Hell with Dying (1988). Print
---------.  The Complete Stories (1994). Print
---------.  The Way Forward Is with a Broken Heart (2000). Print
---------.  Now Is The Time to Open Your Heart (2005). Print
---------.  Devil’s My Enemy (2008). Print

Poetry

---------.  Absolute Trust in the Goodness of the Earth (2003). Print
---------.  A Poem Traveled Down My Arm: Poems And Drawings (2003). Print
Secondary Sources

Books

............... “Recent Negro Fiction,” New Masses, (August5, 1941). Print
--------------. Black Skin, White Masks New York: Grove Press. 1967. Print

Marowski G.Daniel ed., Contemporary Literary Criticism (Detroit, Michigan Gale Research Co. 1986. Print

Martz, Roger Ed. “Alice Walker” In Vol. 58 of Contemporary Literary Criticism 1990. Print

Morris, Miller, Nancy K. “Writing Fictions: Women’s Autobiography in France,” in Life Lines. Print

Susan. Willis, “Alice Walker’s Women”. In Specifying: Black Women Writing the American Experience. Madison, Wis.: U of Wisconsin: Print

Articles

Bertram Lippincott. Johnson Collection, Yale University Library October 4, 1939. Print

Hudson, G. Herald. Zora Neale Hurston and Alternative History.” MAWA Review 1, 2-3 (Summer-Fall): 1982. Print

Hurston to Burroughs Mitchel, October 1947. Print

Hurston to Van Vechten, Johnson Collection, Yale University Library November 2, 1942. Print

Johnson, Lonell E. “The Defiant Black Heroine: Ollie Miss and Janie May-Two Portraits from the 30s.” The Zora Neale Hurston Forum 4, 2: 1990. Print

Interviews