ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I express my heart-felt gratitude to God, the Almighty, without whose blessings this endeavor should not have been a reality in time.

It is a matter of great pleasure for me to express a deep sense of gratitude to my beloved guru Prof. M I Jinnah who enlightened my thoughts through his valuable guidance throughout the period of research. With out his creative approach and tremendous help it would not have been possible for me to shape this thesis in its present form.

I would like to thank Dr. Suresh Singh, Head, and former Heads Prof. A.R. Rajan and Dr. C Jayasri, Department of Mathematics, University of Kerala for their helpful advice and providing the facilities in the Department to carry out the research work. I extend my sincere thanks to the other faculty members of the Department for all their encouragement. Also, I wish to thank the Librarian and all the administrative staff in the Department for their timely help and support. I am indebted to all the fellow researchers in the department and friends for their encouragement and advice.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the Manager of Farook College for permitting me to register for part time research and giving me NOC for doing research under FIP. It is a great pleasure to acknowledge the support by UGC vide their grant No:KLCA028 TF06. I am indebted and grateful to Mr. E.P. Imichikoya, Principal, Mrs. T.V. Ushakumari, Head, and Mr. T. Kuncheedu, former Head, Department of Mathematics, Farook College for their valuable support and sincere co-operation. I wish to thank my colleagues in the Department for their assistance, support and words of good will during the period of my research. I cannot forget the sincere co-operation and valuable support rendered by my colleagues of other Departments, and all the administrative staff of Farook College.

I am also grateful to my beloved student Dr. Sajna Jaleel, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, M.G. University and her family for their valuable support, constant encouragement and a lot more other helps. I can never forget the support and encouragement rendered by Mr. Prakash G. N, Govt College Kattappana who often provided so much comfort as I dealt with and tried to work through the stress of this task. I must express my gratitude and obligation to my friends Dr. Ajitha V, MGC Irithy, Mrs. M.R.Susaji, SNC Nattika, Mrs. T.Amruthavally, Govt. College, Mananthavadi who were a source of constant inspiration and prayerful support. I am grateful to my beloved senior colleagues Mrs.Safiya Rasheed, Mrs. A.K. Munawar and Dr. Asha Mohammed, who guided me through the turbulent phases of my life. It is a great pleasure to acknowledge Dr. Sunil Kumar and Dr. T.Reji for providing me with research articles.

I would also like to express my heart felt gratitude to my husband, son and daughter for the troubles and pains they have taken during my absence from home in connection with the academic work of a prolonged nature. Also I remember the sufferings of my parents and family members, especially during the period of my research.

I have been fortunate enough to get the guidance and help of my scholars. But I hasten to make the usual disclaimer that omissions, if any, in the text are my responsibility and mine alone. I could not name many who sincerely supported and helped for the successful completion of this thesis. It is my pleasure and obligation to thank each and every one of them who walked with me.

Inspiration to undertake and complete a research work of this magnitude came from several quarters and sources the more important of which are mentioned earlier. All of them encouraged me to proceed in right earnest. For their kind words, suggestions and guiding lights along the path, heartfelt thanks and sincere acknowledgement in the form of living memory may be hereby recorded as a token of gratitude. I realize that I owe the most to the Almighty and the rest to my supervisor, family, friends, colleagues, and well wishers for timely support, prompt guidance and inspiring grace to move along the scholars path and reach the destination.
