Acknowledgement

I wish to express my sincere appreciation and gratitude to those who have contributed to this thesis and supported me in one way or the other during this amazing journey. First of all, I am extremely grateful to my supervisor, Professor M. I. Hassan, for his guidance and all the useful discussions and brainstorming sessions, especially during the difficult conceptual development stage. His deep insights helped me at various stages of my research. I also remain indebted for her understanding and support during the times when I was really down and depressed due to personal problems. My sincere gratitude is reserved for Professor Sudhir Bansal, Head of the Department, for his invaluable insights and suggestions. I appreciate his willingness to meet me at short notice every time and going through several drafts of my thesis. I remain amazed that despite his busy schedule, he was able to help me whenever I needed most.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Professor Nina Singh, Professor Binu Sangwan, Professor Sachinder, Professor K.V. Chamar, Professor Inderjeet, Professor Randhir Sangwan, Professor Parmod Bharadwaj, Mr. Naresh Malik and Ms. Renu Arya for their advice and constant encouragement. Here I would like to thanks especially Professor Rajinder Sharma, Head of the Department, Political Science, Maharashi Dayanand University, Rohtak for his kind help and encouragement at the time need.

I also express my thanks to non-teaching members of the staff Dr. Summi Sharma, Sunita, Anita, Rajkumar and Sukar for their friendly behaviour.

Very special thanks to the University Grants Commission, for giving me the opportunity to carry out my doctoral research by providing financial support in the form of Junior Research Fellowship (JRF). It would have been impossible for me to even start my study had they not given me a scholarship during my research period.

I can’t forget the support given in various ways staff members of librarians of Maharashi Dayanand University, Rohtak and Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, for extending their unconditional support during the course of this research work.

PhD students often talk about loneliness during the course of their study but this is something which I never experienced at Rohtak. I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Jitender Singh and Dr. Bijinder Singh for their meaningful discussion, moral boosting, encouragement and help in various ways. I will never forget support of Somvir, Joginder Singh, Shiv Kumar, Joginder Ahlawat, Manju, Ashwani, Deepak kumar (Punjabi), and Salesh, providing me numerous opportunities to learn the art of research. I am especially thankful to Salesh for helping in making maps for the thesis.

I am also thankful to the staff members of Aarohi Model School, Jalloopur (Fatehabad) and Aarohi Model School, Kheri Lochab (Hisar) who gave me all support in completing this thesis. I would like to especially mention names of Principal Pardeep Kumar, Dr. Rakesh, Dharanvir, Surender, Manoj Mor, Appu Singh, Ashok Sir, Anju Kasania, Navjeet Kaur, Santi Commerce and Lokesh Kumar for their support.

In this joyous occasion I cannot forget the contribution of my family who stand solidly behind me in my hard times. I am fortunate to have blessings of my father and mother. Words cannot express the feelings I have for my parents for their constant unconditional support - both emotionally and financially. I would not be here if it not for their support. I am also Fortunate to have Dr. Sunita as my Sister, who supported my endeavour and encouraged me as and when I needed her support. Finally, I would like to acknowledge the most important person in my life – my wife Suman. She has been a constant source of strength and inspiration. There were times during the past three years when everything seemed hopeless and I didn’t have any hope. I can honestly say that it was only her
