I am very much indebted to my teachers, my guide Dr. C. V. Radhakrishnan, Professor, Department of Philosophy, and Dr. T. N. Ganapathy, head of the same department, for their constant encouragement. I cordially thank my guide for the valuable guidance and pains undertaken to go through every line of the work. I convey my heartfelt thanks to Dr. T. N. Ganapathy for having provided the invaluable library facility, but for which it would have taken much more time for acquiring the materials.

My humble thanks are no less due to the Ramakrishna Mission Vivekananda College authorities, who permitted me to do part time research work in their esteemed institution.
CONTENTS

PREFACE (i)

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION 1

1.1 Method 8

1.2 The Sources Of Study And Review 14

CHAPTER II

NATURE-PHILOSOPHY AND ITS ACCOUNT OF MAN 52

2.1 Nature-Philosophy 52

2.2 Nature-Philosophy Of Man 79

CHAPTER III

THE FORMAL SYSTEM OF NATURE-EDUCATION 100

3.1 Objectives And Approach 104

3.2 Aims 116

3.3 School 145

3.4 Curriculum 151

3.5 Method 157

3.6 Teacher-Pupil Relationship 167
CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION 167

BIBLIOGRAPHY 172