P R E F A C E

The rudiments of my interest in C.R., the man, and his career stemmed from a casual and sporadic reading of his works. The fascination born of an interest in human psychology and the special way in which history presents a chain of events was whipped into the sustained enquiry and keen academic pursuit of a scholar by the encouragement, expert help and knowledgeable guidance of Dr. G. Thangavelu.

I thank Dr. G. Thangavelu for the mental energy and stamina he invested in me through his constant encouragement, active involvement and liberal help such as giving access to valuable source material. Without his involvement and support this thesis would not have been what it is today.

Thanks are due to the authorities of the following institutions for permitting a study of files and books in their care: National Archives, Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, New Delhi, Tamilnadu Archives, Madras Corporation Record Room, Madras University Library, Connemara Public Library, Maraimalai Adigal Library, Periyar Rationalist Research Centre Library, Thakkar Bapa Vidhyalaya, Rajaji Centenary Library, Theosophical Society Library, Institute of Asian Studies, 'Kalki' office, Madras, Gandhi Ashram, Tiruchengode, Salem district.
I thank the following persons for giving information and impressions in interviews: Mr. C. Subramaniam, a member of C.R.'s cabinet from 1952-1954, Mr. K.S. Ramunujam, formerly Correspondent of Statesman in Madras, a journalist, and author of the book 'Big Change' and Mr. S. Venkatasubramanian, a journalist and Secretary to C.R. from 1952-1954.

I thank Mr. K.R. Sundaramanjan, Founder and Secretary, Ms. K.S. Lakshmi, Principal of Meenakshi College, Madras, where I am employed for permitting me to undertake this research work on part-time basis.

I thank Mr. A. Ghouse Pasha for carefully and neatly executing the typing of the thesis.

I, with deep sense of gratitude record my sincere thanks to all the people who have made it possible for me to complete this work.
