ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It was during classroom discussions and seminars, students used to come out with questions regarding controversial issues surrounding Gandhi. In the process of trying to answer their questions, I developed a fascination for the study of these controversies. Even otherwise controversies around Gandhi is a rising phenomenon. It is this, which motivated me to take up the present research project. In the process of my work, I have availed help from many and I deem it my moral responsibility to acknowledge their help and co-operation. First of all, I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and profound gratitude to my esteemed teacher, colleague for nearly two decades and my guide Dr. V.S. Hegde, Professor(Rtd) Dept. of Gandhian Studies, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for his guidance and encouragement in carrying out this research work.

I would like to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. M.A. Jalihal, Chairman, Dept of Philosophy, K.U. Dharwad and his beloved father Prof. A.M. Jalihal, Principal, (Rtd) Karnataka Arts College, Dharwad for their constant moral support and encouragement throughout this research work. I also thank Dr. V.A. Attar, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences and Chairman, Dept of Gandhian Studies for his unstinted support for all my academic activities.

I gratefully acknowledge the services of my elder brother Prof. Ashok Shettar, Dept of History and Archaeology, and my good friends Dr. Siddanagouda Patil and Mr. G.N. Nagaraj, Karnataka State Secretaries of CPI and CPI(M) and also late Mr. C.R. Bhat, a noted Trade Union leader, for their invaluable help in collecting the necessary material for my research work. I wish to record my gratitude to the staff of Karnataka University Library and the Gujarath Vidyapeeth Library, Ahmedabad, for giving me access to valuable document and records.

Many teacher colleagues on the campus like, Dr. P.S. Halyal, Professor of Psychology and President of K.U.P.G. Teachers Association, Dr. B.B. Kalswal, Chairman, Dept. of Micro-Biology and Bio-Technology, Dr. S.S. Patagundi, Chairman, Dept. of Political Science, Dr. C.R. Karisiddappa, Professor, Dept. of Library and Information Science, Dr. B.D. Kumbar, Secretary, K.U.P.G. Teachers Association, Dr. A. Murigeppa, Chairman, Institute of Kannada Studies, have encouraged me in my work. I take this opportunity to thank all of them.

My students in the Department have all along been a source of inspiration to me. I especially recall the services rendered by Mr. J.V. Chavan, Mr. S.S. Shireshi, Mr. Mahesh Patil, Mr. U.L. Doddamani, Mr. S.B. Bashetti and Mr. M.B. Guled. Along with them, members of non-teaching staff Mr. S.M. Gudur and Mr. Mustaq Dafedar have also helped me in many ways. I sincerely thank all of them. My thanks are also due to Mr. R.K. Hegde for his timely and excellent type setting work.

Last but however not the least, I am deeply indebted to my beloved wife, Mrs. Sumangala, for her constant patience and cooperation. Finally I thank my eldest sister Smt. Gouramma, my lovely daughters Priyadarshini and Meghadarshini and all other members of my family without whose unstinted moral support this project would not have been completed.
