ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It gives me an immense pleasure to express my deep sense of reverence and gratitude to my research supervisor Prof. Y. VENKATARAMI REDDY, Department of Geology, S. V. University. I am extremely grateful for his constant and untiring special interest shown in the work and for the constructive criticism and suggestions he has offered throughout this investigation and in drafting the manuscript.

Prof. N. Subba Reddy, Head, Department of Geology, S. V. University, Tirupati, showed keen interest in the work and constantly encouraged the author. His demonstrative pleasant feelings are immensely thanked.

I express my sincere thanks and gratitude to Er. T. R. Kannan, Managing Director and to Er. P. Lokanatha Raja, Director of M/s. Jayajothi Cements Limited, Chennai, for according permission to carry out research in their Limestone project.

Er. P. Raju, General Manager (Project) and Er. Devanand (General Manager-Mines) of M/s. Jayajothi Cements Limited, Yanakandla are also thanked for extending the facilities that helped me to complete my work at an early date.

My friend Sri. G. Bhasker (Geologist) of M/s. Jayajothi Cements Limited, Yanakandla, helped me in many ways, both in the field and in lab. His pleasant gesture is highly thanked.
My sincere thanks are also due to Sri. Subba Rao, In-Charge of QC and to all the Chemical stream and staff of M/s. Jayajothi Cements Limited, Yanakandla for their helping attitude and co-operation, without which I could not have completed this successfully.

I am extremely grateful to Prof. K. Kesava Raju, of Department of Geology and Chairman, BOS, for providing facilities in various ways. Prof. T. V. Krishna Reddy, former Head, Prof. R. C. Hanumanthu, Prof. A. S. Sudheer, Prof. A. Nagaraju, and Prof. T. Samba Siva Rao, Prof. S. Ramanaiah, Prof. N. Balayerikala Reddy, are all thanked for their constant encouragement and good advice to carry out this work.

Dr. B. K. Nagaraja Rao, former Director of Geological Survey of India is duly thanked for his useful suggestions during the progress of the work.

Dr. N. Ramakrishna Reddy, Lecturer, Department of Geology, Loyola Degree College, (YSRR) Pulivendla, has supported all through the work. His affectionate feelings are highly thanked.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Associate Prof. U. Suresh, for his friendly attitude and brotherly advice. I am thankful to G. Sivanatha Reddy and K. R. Vara Prasada Reddy, D. V. Sankar Research Associates for their kind co-operation and helping attitude in the research work.
I am in dearth of words to express my unboundful gratitude and love to my beloved venerable parents Mrs. Thulasemma, Mr. Ramachandra Reddy, and aunt Mrs. Balamma and Uncle Mr. Eswara Reddy who sparkled the spirit of enthusiasm, constantly inspired, educate, guided and moulded me into the present position and whose encouragement brings out the best in every one of endeavours. It remains less even if I say a lot about them.

It is my good fortune to have the blessing and moral support from my uncle Sri. Parandhama Reddy and Sri. Kanthamma for his everlasting love and memorable encouragement in the pursuit of my studies.

My wife, Madhu Latha is also thanked for her co-operation, without which this work could not have been completed.

Sri. Y. Srinivasa Rao, GIS Engineer of Hyderabad is thanked for the guidance he has accorded in the preparation of the maps.
