ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The research work presented in this thesis has been carried out under the able guidance and supervision of Dr. P. S. Mukherjee, Scientist, Regional Research Laboratory, Bhubaneswar (formerly in the Regional Research Laboratory, Trivandrum) and Dr. V. K. Vaidyan, Professor, Department of Physics, University of Kerala, Kariavattom. I express my heart felt gratitude to them for their invaluable suggestions, encouragement and moral support during the course of my research work.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. A. D. Damodaran, Director, for granting permission to carry out the research work in the Regional Research Laboratory and also for his personal encouragement during the course of the research work. I am grateful to Dr. S. Devanarayanan, Professor and Head, Department of Physics, University of Kerala for providing the facilities for research work in the department.

I wish to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my colleagues Dr. K. G. K. Warrier, Dr. M. T. Sebastian and Dr. P. N. Mohan Das for their valuable suggestions and help. I am very happy to inscribe here my deep appreciation and sincere gratitude to P. P. Rao, R. Jagannathan, V. P. Nair, L. Prasanna Kumari, R. Rajeev, and M. R. Nair of the Electron Microscopy and Instrumentation Department, for their wholehearted co-operation, assistance and moral support. My special thanks are also due to Dr. Johny T. Abraham, Senior Scientific Assistant, Central Forensic Science Laboratory, Hyderabad who has been of invaluable help during the course of my research work.

I would like to acknowledge Dr. U. Shyama Prasad and P. Guruswamy for their keen interest and help in carrying out the X-ray diffraction works. It is of great pleasure to thank Dr. R. Ratheesh, K. G. Gopchandran, Benny Joseph, P. Vijayakumar and Annamma Mathew for the sincere help rendered during the preparation of this thesis.

It gives me immense pleasure to record here my indebtedness to my wife Elizabeth, my mother Saramma and my children for all their continuous encouragement, moral support and their sacrifices without which this thesis would not have been materialised.

Finally, I thank all my friends who have rendered direct or indirect help during the course of this research work.
