CONTENTS

Chapter:

I. THE PROBLEM: ITS BACKGROUND AND CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK: 01-50
   - Introduction
   - Principal as Head of an Organization
   - Responsibilities and powers of College Principals.
   - The nature of stress
   - The concept of Personality
   - Administrative Effectiveness
   - Need and significance of the study
   - Statement of the problem
   - Objectives of the study
   - Hypothesis
   - Scope of the study
   - Definition of important terms
   - References

II. REVIEW OF RELATED LITERATURE: 51-92
   - The College Principals in India and abroad
   - Studies in India.
   - Studies Abroad
   - References

III. METHODS AND PROCEDURES OF STUDY: 93-118
   - Method of Study
   - Collection of data
   - The population & Sample
   - Administration & Seeing of tests.
   - Description of the Tools
   - References.

IV. DATA: THEIR ANALYSIS AND RESULTS 119-140
   - Introduction
   - Hypothesis I
     Discussion
   - Hypothesis II
     Discussion
   - Hypothesis III
     Discussion
   - The Results
   References
V. FINDINGS : THEIR IMPLICATION & SUGGESTIONS FOR FURTHER RESEARCH
References.

VI. SUMMARY & CONCLUSIONS
- The Problem
- Introduction
- The Principal as Head of an organization– his duties and powers.
- The concepts of Stress, personality needs and educational effectiveness.
- Need and significance of the study
- Statement of the problem.
- Objectives of the study
- Hypothesis
- Scope of the study
- Definition of important terms
- Review of related literature & need for the present study
- Analysis of data and results
- Educational implications and suggestions for further research.

APPENDIX :
- A Bibliography
- B Tools used.
- B₁ Principals Administrative Stress- Prone Scale
- B₂ Meenkshi Personality Inventory
- B₃ Amita Bhatnagar's Administrative Effectiveness scale.

APPENDIX - C : THE DATA
C₁ List of Degree Colleges in Bundelkhand Univ.
C₂ Master-Sheet showing scores of Principals on Stress-proneness, personality needs nd average scores of teachers in each college.
C₃ Mean scores on needs and Administrative Effectiveness
C₄ Scores of High Stress prone Principals (HSPs) on needs and Administrative Effectiveness (A.E.)
C₅ Scores of Low stress-prone Principals (LSPs) on needs and Administrative Effectiveness.