ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude to Professor Dr. P.B. Desai who has condescended to guide me in my work for this thesis. Discussions with him proved to be of immense help to me in arriving at new conclusions. In fact, he has been more than a guide to me.

The authorities of the Karnataka University, Dharwar, have kindly accorded permission to register myself for the Ph.D. Degree in the Department of Ancient Indian History and Culture, under the guidance of Prof. Dr. P.B. Desai.

The Director General, Archaeological Survey of India, has been good enough to permit me to undertake this study for the Degree.

Prof. Dr. D.C. Sircar of Calcutta; Prof. Dr. V.V. Mirashi of Nagpur; Shri H.K. Narasimhaswami, Retired Superintending Epigraphist, Mysore; Shri K.R. Srinivasan, Retired Superintending Archaeologist, Madras; Shri Somasundara Dikshitar, adhyapaka Śruntapathaśāla of Kumbakonam; all these scholars kindly and unhesitatingly offered elucidations of some points when I sought for.

Dr. G.S. Gai, Chief Epigraphist, Mysore, kindly supplied to me, on my request, the photographs of some of the inscriptions for my study.
Regarding the photographs illustrated here, the fig. 1 of Pl. II, Pl. V, fig. 1 of Pl. VI, Pls. VII, VIII, XI, XII and XIII have been obtained from the Office of the Chief Epigraphist, Mysore. The figs. 2, 3 and 5 of Pl. II are photographs from Sir Walter Elliot's Coins of Southern India (London, 1887), Pl. II, Nos. 41, 49 and 50. The fig. 4 of Pl. II is photographed from No. 7 of Pl. 2 of Dr. M. Rama Rao's Satavahana Coins (APCMS, No. 2, Hyderabad, 1961). The fig. 2 of Pl. VI is a photograph of fig. 44 of G.M. Moraes' Kadambakula (Bombay, 1934). The Pls. III, IV, IX and X are photographed from the facsimiles given by Shri B.N. Sastri in the Bharati (June 1965, pp. 13 ff; July 1965, pp. 2 ff.).

I feel deeply indebted to all these officers, authors, scholars and publishers.
