ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. A.H. Chachadi, my Research Guide and Professor in Management, for his advice, supervision and encouragement. He was reassuring me through out the research study that this study would contribute to the cause of better management of post merger integration of people.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. M.S. Subhas, Professor in Management, Kousali Institute of Management, Karnatak University, Dharwad for his encouragement.

I am deeply indebted to Prof. S.H. Kidiyoor, Faculty, KIMS for painstakingly going through the draft of the thesis and coming out with innumerable suggestions for improvements in its presentation.

I am grateful to the members of my family, especially, my father Prof. H.V. Nagesh, uncles Dr. H.V. Sudhaker Nayak and late Shri H. Vijayaraghava Nayak for constantly encouraging me to see this project through.

I thank all the respondents for the questionnaire survey and interviews. But, for their willing cooperation this project would not have been completed.

I thank my colleagues at KIMS for their encouragement. Thanks are also due to fellow researchers at KIMS. I also thank Shri A.S. Kulkarni, former Placement Officer and Ms. Kamaksha, the present Placement Officer, KIMS for their constant encouragement. I thank the non-teaching staff at KIMS led by Shri C.R. Kadkol, Shri N.P. Hosakatti and Ms. Vanita for their support.
I thank the following professors for their encouragement: Dr. S.S. Hugar (Dean, Faculty of Commerce, Karnatak University, Dharwad); Dr. T.N. Sridhar, Dr. T. Mallikarjunappa, Dr. P. Pakkeerappa (Mangalore University); Dr. S. Jayanna and Dr. Ramesh Agadi (Gulbarga University); Dr. B.R. Ananthan (Mysore University); Dr. Bakkappa (Kuvempu University).

I thank Shri Girish Kulkarni for bringing the thesis to the present shape.

I thank my wife Neeta, and kids - Aditya and Akshara for bearing with my long periods of absence during literature survey and field work and lack of attention during thesis writing.

Lastly, I thank the almighty Lord for his favours and blessings.

H.N.Shivaprasad