TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFATORY NOTE ........................................................................................................ 1-v
TABLE OF CONTENTS .................................................................................................. vi-x
ABBREVIATIONS ......................................................................................................... xi
MAP .................................................................................................................................. xii
PROLOGUE:
Brief Survey of Political History of Surapur upto 1800 ................................................. 1-5
Aspects of Cultural History and Administration ............................................................... 5-8
Notes and References .................................................................................................... 8-12

CHAPTER I - BEGINNINGS AND DEVELOPMENT OF BRITISH RELATIONS WITH SURAPUR: .......................... 13-49

A - Beginning of British Connection ............................................................................. 13-35
   The Anglo-Nizam Treaty of 1800 ............................................................................. 13-17
   Raja Venkatappa II and the British(1801-2) .............................................................. 18-20
      Capture of Sagar by the Nizam .......................................................................... 18-20
   Death of Venkatappa II and Installation of Pid Naik III ........................................... 21-22
   Raja Pid Naik III and the British(1807-8) ................................................................. 22-28
      Removal of Raja Mahipatram's Influence ............................................................ 22-28
      Pid Naik III's Fulfilment of Financial Obligations .............................................. 29-31
   Raja Venkatappa III and the British(1821-3) ............................................................ 32-35
      Relinquishment of Surapur's Dues to the British ................................................. 32-35
B - Increasing British Intervention

Raja Krishappa and the British (1823-41)

- Imposition of huge nazrana by Hyderabad
- Raja's failure to pay
- Capt. Raynsford's arrangements
- Capt. Lee's arrangements
- Raja fails to pay again
- More decisive steps by the British

Notes and References

CHAPTER II - THE MISSION OF CAPTAIN GRESLEY
(Dec. 1841 - Nov. 1842):

Appointment and Instructions
Question of Ruzums, Cattle-lifting and Other Depredations
Disturbances of Hanamappa Naik
Plunder of Hemnapur and the Problem of Han Ruzums
Gresley's Report and Settlement
Reduction of Marched
Implementation of Gresley's Settlement
Gresley after the Death of the Raja
- Imposition of Pid Naik as Divan of Surapur and Gresley's failure to install him in office

Notes and References

CHAPTER III - ESTABLISHMENT OF CAPT. MEADOWS TAYLOR'S AUTHORITY:

Taylor reduces Rani Ishwaramma
Taylor's Other Immediate Measures
(1) Question of Refund of Impost Secured by Violent Methods
(2) Retrenchment of Sibandi
(3) Arrangements to pay Nizam's dues
Plea for Permanent British Officer in Surapur and appointment of Taylor as Political Agent
Conflict with Pid Naik
Payment of Arrears to the Nizam and Taylor in Jeopardy
Taylor in Full Charge and Death of Diwan Pid Naik
Taylor's Later Relations with Rani Ishwaramma

Notes and References

CHAPTER IV - TAYLOR'S ADMINISTRATION OF SURAPUR:

Introductory
Revenue Administration:
   (a) Land Revenue
   (b) Agriculture and Irrigation
      (i) Tanks
      (ii) Cotton Cultivation
      (iii) Indigo
   (c) Other Sources of Revenue
      (i) Contracts
      (ii) Taxes
      (iii) Bagewadi rusum
      (iv) Bijapur rusum
   (d) Registry of Bedar lands
   (e) Net Revenue Increase

Expenditure and Treasury
Trade and Industry
Law and Order
Judicial Administration
Attitude Towards Religion
Measures of Welfare
   Roads
   Public Buildings
   Plantations
   Dispensary
   and Reference
CHAPTER V - RAJA VENKATAPPA IV AND THE BRITISH:

A - Childhood, Transfer of Power and Maladministration
   (a) Childhood and Education
   (b) Partial Transfer of Power
   (c) Full Transfer of Power
   (d) Maladministration

B - The Revolt
   First Reports
   R.N. Taylor's Report on the Raja
   Capt. Campbell Deputed for Enquiry
   Capt. Campbell in Surapur
   Salar Jang's Report
   Capt. Campbell Secures Proof
   Resident Davidson Orders Movement of Troops Towards Surapur
   Capt. Campbell Shifts his Camp
   What Happened on 7th February 1858
   Capt. Newberry Killed
   Capture of Surapur
   The Raja's Flight
   The Raja's Surrender and Confession Statement
   Raja's Confession to Taylor
   The Trial
   The Suicide
   The Raja's Role in the 'Revolt'
   Surapur Raja and the Karnatak Historians
   Significance of Surapur Events

Notes and References

CHAPTER VI - SURAPUR UNDER SEQUESTRATION:

The Nizam's Claim Refuted
Surapur Under Military Occupation and the Question of Prize Property
Taylor's Second Administration •• 224-245
Restoration of Law and Order •• 225-226
Civil Administration •• 226-228
Revenue Administration and Expenditure •• 228-230
Clearance of Arrears of Hereditary Servants, Raja's Debts and Other Claims • • 230-232
Jagirs and Rent-free Lands •• 232-235
  General •• 232-234
  Special Cases •• 234
  Rantis •• 234-235
  Rent-free Lands of the Bedars •• 235
Introduction of the Company's Currency •• 235-237
Judicial Administration •• 237-240
Police •• 240-242
Public Works •• 242-243
Medical and Education Departments •• 243-244
Summing up of Taylor's Administration •• 244-245
The Principality Gifted Away to the Mizan •• 245-247
Notes and References •• 247-251

CHAPTER VII - REVIEW •• 252-269
Notes and References •• 270

EPILOGUE: •• 271-277
  Bagewadi Rusum Discontinued •• 271-272
  Resident Davidson Snubbed •• 272
  Rani Rangamma's Petitions Rejected •• 273-275
  Prize Committee's Accounts Closed •• 275
  Pretenders Suppressed •• 275-276
Notes and References •• 276-277

APPENDIX I - The Loans of Motigir Gosain Under British Guarantee •• 278-282
Notes and References •• 281-282

APPENDIX II - A Critical Note on Taylor's Autobiography As a Source •• 283-291

GLOSSARY •• 292-302

BIBLIOGRAPHY •• 303-314