ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Many officers and persons in-charge of various institutions have helped me in the task of bringing out this thesis. In the fitness of things I must express sincere thanks to them. I owe a deep debt of gratitude to -

Dr. B.B. Gireppagoudar, M.Sc., LL.B., Ph.D., Reader and former Head of the Department of Criminology, Karnataka University, Morwad, who magnanimously chose me as his first student for the research work on "Administration of Juvenile Justice System in Karnataka State", offered me his invaluable guidance, encouragement, suggestions etc., resolved many doubts and problems which confronted me in the intricate matters concerning this work and allowed me to have frequent discussions with him regarding the subject and assisted me in completing this intricate work.

The University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for having granted me Junior and Senior Fellowship and necessary financial assistance during the period of four years for my research work.

The Deputy Inspector General of Police, Belgaum, for having afforded me all facilities to study the necessary published and unpublished reports and police records, and permitted me to visit the police personnel, interview them and collect the necessary data from them.

The Director of Social Welfare, Bangalore, for his permission to collect necessary material from all the institutions under his control.

The District and Sessions Judges of Bhandar, Belgaum, Bijapur and Karwar for their permission to visit the Juvenile Courts, interview the presiding Magistrates, inspect the relevant records, attend the trials in the Courts and collect all the material necessary for this research work.

The Magistrates presiding over the Juvenile Courts, for their giving information and affording all assistance to me in collecting the necessary material.

The Police personnel for their willing co-operation in giving me all the information respecting the apprehension, detention, investigation etc., of the juvenile delinquents.

All the personnel of the correctional and after-care institutions and probation officers who are working under the 'Probation of Offenders' Act for their co-operation and supply of all the necessary material relevant for the present research work.
Lawyers and Social Workers for their co-operation and giving their valuable opinions regarding the functioning of Juvenile Justice System.

The officials of the Libraries viz., -

a) Karnataka University, Dharwad, Karnataka;
b) Institute of Criminology and Forensic Science, M.S.A., New Delhi;
c) Tata Institute of Social Science, Bombay;
d) University of Sagar, Sagar (M.P.);
e) Madras University, Madras;
f) Bureau of Police Research and Development, M.S.A., New Delhi;
g) National Institute of Social Defence, Ministry of Social Welfare, New Delhi;

for having permitted me to utilise the Library facilities for my research work.

Mr. Ashok S. Anikivi, friend of mine and research scholar in Political Science, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for giving me encouragement and assistance in my research work.
Staff of the Department of Criminology, Karnatak University, Mysore for giving me encouragement and cooperation in my research work.

Mysore.

1-11-1967

B.M. Hiragannavar.