Gratitude is the memory of heart!

One would not achieve whatever he is now, without all help, encouragement and the wishes of the near and dear ones. Teachers, parents, relatives, friends and well-wishers are an integral part of this. I owe them a lot and it always is a difficult task expressing and putting in towards the sense of gratitude for them.

I am fortunate enough to have worked under the guidance of excellence pursuing and ever helpful personality Dr. M. S. SUBHAS, Professor in Management, Kousali Institute of Management Studies, Karnatak University, Dharwad. I wish to express with utmost sincerity, my deep sense of gratitude to him for his guidance, encouragement and generous help during the course of this research work. I accomplish his construction criticism, inspiration, insightful suggestions with privilege and heartfelt gratitudeness, without which I could not have completed this work.

I dedicate this work of mine to by beloved father Late Shri Ratnakar V. Raykar. It is his inspiration which has been the driving force for this work of mine. I have no words to express my indebtedness to my beloved Mother Smt Kumud R. Raykar and my brother Dr. Raviraj R. Raykar and Dr Rajesh R. Raykar for their boundless love, needy inspiration, unshakable confidence in me, without whose affection and moral support, I would not have come up to this level.

On my personal note, it is an immense pleasure to express my sincere gratitude to my wife Smt Sandhya R. Raykar and affection to my daughters Kumari Reema and Kumari Reeya, for their sacrifice, co-operation, love and affection, caring in every aspects of my studies and research work. With their support, I never felt burden of my studies.

I would not forget all the well wishers who have helped me directly or indirectly during my course of research work. Omission of any names does not mean the lack of gratitude. Ending is inevitable for all good and it is time to end the acknowledgement.

I convey my whole hearted thanks to Mr. Arjun (Arjun Computers), for their meticulous typing of the manuscript neatly, timely and more vitally their co-operation and affection towards me and Shri. Mahantesh I. Kumbar, for their neat binding of the manuscript.
