ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am ever grateful to my mentor and research supervisor Dr. C. Basavaraju, M.A., L.L.M., Ph.D. Professor, Dean and chairman, Department of Studies and Research in Law, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore, Karnataka, for his concern as well as his expert guidance. Throughout my research I have benefited greatly from the discussions had with him. His comments, suggestions and advice have been both invaluable and indispensable for my research. His research experience and scholarly teaching in law has greatly contributed for bringing out this research thesis. He has been a great source of inspiration for all academic activities in the Department.

It is with great pleasure that I acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude for all the valuable assistance I received from my esteemed colleagues and friends who are directly and indirectly involved in the task of my research thesis.

I express my affectionate and deeply felt gratitude to my special friends M.T. Krishnamurthy, M.S Suresh Benjamin, Mehaboob Sharieff, with whom I had the benefit of sharing the pleasure and difficulties of research.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr. V. Shanmugam, Lecturer, University Maharaja Evening College, Mysore., R. Jayanna, Research Scholar, Department of Studies in Library Information Science., H.M. Candrasheker, Lecturer, IDS, University of Mysore and Dr. N.S. Srinivasulu, Associate Professor, National University of Juridical Sciences, West Bengal, for their moral support and co-operation in the Completion of my research work.
I would like to express my sincere thanks to the Librarian, Ambedkar Research Centre, Bangalore and National Law School of India University, Bangalore, Chief Librarian and staff, library, University of Mysore for extending their help in the process of collection of materials.

My sincere thanks are due for the providers of hand books and various programmes of the state brochure of various departments like, Department of Directorate of Women and Child Development, Social Welfare Department, Directorate of Scheduled Tribe Welfare Department, Ambedkar Development Corporation, Department of Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Sericulture, Bangalore, Zillapanchayat officers of Bangalore, Mandya, Mysore, Chamarajanagar, Kolar, Bijapur, Raichur.

I am thankful to the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Law Department, Manasagangothri, University of Mysore for their kind co-operation.

My grateful thanks to my wife S.K. Pavithra, daughter M.G. Supritha and my parents Siddaramaiah and Alamelamma for the moral support extended to complete my work. I would like to express the deep sense of gratitude to my brothers S. Somashekar, S. Nandish and Sister S. Jayalakshmi.

Finally, I would like to thank Dr. D. Mahesh, typing and formatting the thesis on his computer and provided the prints at the earliest.

(S. Guruswamy)