ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I feel very pleasant and satisfied now as I could almost complete the work whatever was planned. I would like to extend my thanks to the farmers of the bhadra basin area for allowing me to carry out the geophysical investigations. It enabled me to collect the data in its original form.

I thankfully acknowledge the constant support and guidance of Dr. H. M Jayasheela, the research supervisor of this work.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. R.S Hanagodimath, Dr. B.K Wodeyar Professors and former Chairmen’s and Dr. H.M Jayasheela, present Chairman, for extending all necessary facilities. My thanks are also due to Dr. M. Basavanna, professor, Dr. S.C Puranik, professor, Dr. A.G Ugarkar, professor, Dr. B.V Nadagouda, Reader and Dr. A. Sreenivasa, Reader, Department of studies in Geology, for their encouragement in completion of the research work. I am thankful to the administrative staff of the Department for their cooperation and support.

I am thankful to the Officials of District Statistical Office, Shimoga, Mines and Geology Department Shimoga, and Indian Meteorological Department, Shimoga & Bangalore for providing the groundwater data and meteorological data respectively.

I am very much thankful to Dr. Haimavathy Reddy, Professor, Department of Studies in Geography, Karnataka University, Dharwad and Dr. I.D. Shetty, Chairman Department of Studies in Statistics, Karnataka University, Dharwad for their cooperation in analysis of the meteorological data and Chemical data respectively.

Several of my friends took keen interest and helped me in completion of my research work. I wish to thank Shri. Sanjay.M. Hiremath, Shri. Panduranga Rao and Shri. T.K. Lakkundi. I express my thanks to Shri. Subray Hegde for helping in cartographic work.
I am very much thankful to Management and Prof. Ashok Kumar Rao, T. Principal, Vivekananda College of Engineering and Technology, Puttur for cooperation in finalizing the research work. My thanks are also due to staff members, Civil Engineering Department, VCET, Puttur.

My sincere thanks to Dr. B.N. ShantaPriya, former Principal, Vivekananda College of Engineering and Technology, Puttur for the guidance, inspiration and encouragement in finalizing the thesis.

I am sincerely indebted to my family members for their support and constant boost up for the research work. I am very much thankful to my parents and wife.

(H.G. Umeshchandra)

Place: Dharwad
Date: 07.08.09