The author wishes to express deep sense of gratitude to his guide Professor Dr. P.V. Mohanram who has imparted him a sound grasp of the subject matter. His inspiring guidance, instinctive support and single-minded navigation towards the line of solution have helped learn the attitudes of a researcher. Innumerable sessions with him at every stage of this work were soul searching and ever refreshing for completing the work. The author will cherish the association with him and thank for the accessibility provided at every call during this project.

The author gratefully acknowledges the kind encouragement and extensive permission given by Professor Dr. P. Radakrishnan, Principal, PSG College of Technology for this research project.

The author is expressing his heartfelt and grateful bouquet of thanks to the faculty members and staff of Production Engineering and FESTO Laboratory at PSG College of Technology Mr. Lakshmanan, Mr. Gopishankar & Ms. Vijayalalitha for the timely support extended during the review and analysis of the findings of this project.

The magnanimous permission given by the management of M/s PRICOL, Coimbatore by way of throwing open their facility towards the successful completion of the project is thankfully acknowledged. Further, the author wishes to record with thanks the extensive, timely, selfless help extended by his colleagues of Pumps Division, Manufacturing Engineering, PRA (Product Reliability Analysis) Laboratory and staff at his own office during the tenure of this project.

The words of support from Professor S. Subramaniam Ex-Vice Chancellor of Bharathiar University, Dr. Prasada Raju Deputy Director at Department of Science and Technology, Government of India and friends which initiated and sustained the author into this endeavor are gratefully thanked.

The author expresses his sincere gratitude to the Executive Chairman and colleagues at M/s Roots Industries Limited for the forbearance, timely support and magnanimity shown during the critical phase of this project.

The author dedicates emotional and affectionate thanks to his father, wife, daughter and son for their tolerance and understanding during the period of this work. Words won't compensate the losses they incurred.
