ACKNOWLEDGMENT

It is with great elation, I take this opportunity to express my profound sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. H. C. Devarajegowda, Associate Professor, Department of Physics, Yuvaraja’s College, University of Mysore, Mysore for his valuable guidance, supervision and ceaseless encouragement given throughout the course of my research work. I am indebted to him for his peerless source of inspiration, high degree of discipline and sincerity, for his critical comments and benevolent concern. He steered me through every problem. His valuable support and timely suggestions have enabled me to successfully complete the arduous task of preparing this thesis.

I wish to express my gratitude to Prof. T. N. Guru Row, SSCU, IISc, Bangalore, Prof. Raghavaiah, Central University, Hyderabad, Dr. Kamble, Department of Chemistry, Karnataka University, Dharwad, Dr. Binoy Krishna Saha, Department of Chemistry, Pondicherry University, Pondicherry, Prof. Murugeshan, Sophisticated Analytical Instrument Facility, IIT, Chennai, India, for their help with the data collection.

I would thank Prof. R. Somashekar, Chairman, BOS in Physics, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Mysore for providing me an opportunity to undertake the research work. My sincere thanks to Prof. K. S. Mallesh, Chairman, DOS in Physics, for his encouragement.

I am thankful to Dr. H. Nanjegowda, Principal, Yuvaraja’s College, University of Mysore, Mysore and the Former Principals and Head of the Department of Physics, Yuvaraja’s College, University of Mysore, Mysore for giving me an opportunity to utilize the facilities in the department regarding my research work.

Special thanks to Dr. K. Mahesh Kumar, Dr. Ravindra R. Kamble, Dr. Irfan Ali Mohammed, Mohan Krishna for providing the samples.

I would like to thank all the members of our research group, viz., Dr. Waleed Fadl Ali Al-eryani, Mr. S. Jeyaseelan, and Dr. H. K. Arunkashi, for their continuous encouragement and support.

I wish to pay everlasting gratitude and special thanks to my beloved teacher Dr. P. Umadevi, Principal, Shankaragowda College of Education, Mandya who sowed the idea of taking up the research work. I am much indebted to her for the loving and caring attitude in helping me from the beginning to the end of this research work with her kind and continuous moral support and timely guidance which led me to the completion of this thesis.

Also I am thankful to my dear teachers Prof. M. S. Lalithamma, Former Chairperson and Dean, Department of Studies in Education, Manasagangotri, University of Mysore, Mysore and Prof. Shivalingegowda, Head of the Department, Department of Physics, P. E. S College of Engineering, Mandya, for their blessings and encouragement in taking up this research work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude and a special thought is devoted to my parents Smt. V. T. Leelavathi and Sri. Ramalingegowda for their blessings and concern. I would like to thank my mom, especially for her patience, unconditional love and full pledged support that strengthened me to complete this thesis successfully. I am greatful to my caring and loving brother Mr. K. R. Raghu who has always been an ardent listener and a strong support to me.

I express my heartfelt thanks to my husband Mr. K. K. Somashekara and my loving son S. Vinyas Gangadkar for their excellent patience and willingness for doing this work. The tireless support and encouragement of my husband needs a special mention. He stood as a backbone to me and strengthened my confidence in completing this thesis successfully with his kind co-operation and understanding. Without his patience it would hardly be possible to come out with this thesis.

I greatly acknowledge the Department of Pre-University Education, Bangalore for granting me the permission to take up this research work.

I am sincerely thankful to Mr. Chandrashekaramurthy, Principal, Government Pre-University College, Basaralu, Mandya Taluk and all my dear colleagues, for their encouragement and kind co-operation in completing this thesis.

Finally, I would like to thank all my friends and well wishers who have helped me directly or indirectly in bringing out this thesis successfully.
