ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

When it comes to express the heart-felt gratitude towards those who were life and soul to this work, my situation is empty summed up by the lines “when the heart is full, the tongue is silent”. Words – if they could be adequately used – would perhaps still not suffice in bringing forth the totality of my gratefulness for those concerned. Medical College, Jhansi has imbibed in me an unflagging zeal for this work ready accessibility, even at her personal inconvenience, and heartening words provided the self confidence so vital for undertaking such a project.

I am at a loss of words to express my indebtedness gratitude and regards to my teachers Dr. Sanjaya Sharma M.D. Professor & Head Department of Gynaecology & Obstetrics, MLB Medical College, Jhansi for her constant guidance in all spheres, encouragement and inspiration without which it would have been impossible to carry out this work.
